Day 2: Port information not found

Sainte Anne Island is encircled by a Marine National Park, home to incredible marine life including more than 150 species of fish. Sainte Anne is now a significant nesting site for Hawksbill turtles. Late morning, we sail to Cousin, a small island renowned as a haven for seabirds. The granitic islet was a private property until 1968 when it was purchased by the International Council for Bird Preservation to transform it into a nature reserve. It's the most protected island in the archipelago, providing a breeding ground for eleven sea bird species annually and a habitat for five birds native to the Seychelles. We stay overnight in Praslin. DiscoverMORE
Visit to Moyenne Island (extra expense, must be pre-booked)
Step ashore on enchanting Moyenne Island, located within the protected waters of Sainte Anne Marine National Park. Once a neglected island, Moyenne was lovingly restored by former newspaper editor Brendon Grimshaw, who transformed it into a flourishing nature reserve and sanctuary for wildlife. After transfer by dinghy from the ship, guests enjoy a guided walking tour along scenic trails that wind through native vegetation and shaded pathways. Meet the island's resident giant tortoises, discover educational displays detailing Moyenne's fascinating conservation story, and take in spectacular views across the turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean. This tranquil escape offers a unique opportunity to experience one of Seychelles' smallest national parks, rich in history and biodiversity, before returning by dinghy to the ship.
Activity Level: Easy, Duration: 1 hour 15 minutes Included Excursion
Cousin Island Birding Hike
Discover the extraordinary biodiversity of Cousin Island, a legally protected Special Reserve under Seychelles law. Managed for conservation, research, and carefully controlled ecotourism, Cousin is a sanctuary where wildlife protection takes absolute priority. Guests are transferred by small island boats directly onto the beach—an impressive landing manoeuvre designed to prevent the accidental introduction of pests and preserve the island's fragile ecosystem. Upon arrival, visitors are divided into small groups and guided by one of the Reserve's expert Wardens, who provide fascinating insight into the island's rare birdlife, endemic species, and ongoing conservation efforts.The guided walk lasts approximately two hours and offers a flatter, smoother path suitable for guests preferring a gentler experience. After the walk, guests return to the beach for staggered departures back to the ship.
Activity Level: Easy, Duration: 3 hours Anchored: 19:00 (previous day) – 11:30 | 14:00 – 18:00

Vallee de Mai Nature Reserve & Anse Lazio (extra expense)
Explore the natural treasures of Praslin Island on this captivating island escape. Departing from Baie Ste Anne Pier, your first stop is the legendary Vallée de Mai, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the Seychelles’ most extraordinary natural sanctuaries. Walk beneath towering palms in this primeval forest, often described as a natural cathedral, and discover the iconic Coco de Mer, producer of the largest seed in the plant kingdom. Keep watch for the rare Seychelles Black Parrot, endemic to Praslin, and listen for its distinctive high-pitched call echoing through the forest canopy. Following your forest visit, enjoy a scenic drive to the breathtaking Anse Lazio, where you will be welcomed with fresh coconut drinks and have leisure time to relax, swim, or soak in the beauty of one of Seychelles’ most celebrated beaches before returning to the pier.
Activity Level: Easy, Duration: 3 hours 30 minutes DiscoverMORE
A Day of Golf on Praslin: Constance Lemuria Resort (extra expense)
Enjoy a premier golfing experience on Praslin Island at the spectacular Lemuria Golf Course, located within the elegant Constance Lemuria Resort. Beautifully designed by Marc Antoine Farry and Rodney Wright, and inaugurated in 2000, this is the only 18-hole golf course in Seychelles. Set against a dramatic backdrop of lush hills and the Indian Ocean, the course features stunning terraced greens and the iconic 15th hole, widely regarded as one of the most breathtaking in the region. Golfers can look forward to both a scenic and rewarding challenge. This comprehensive package includes 18 holes, green fees, rental clubs, a shared club car, water per person, 10 golf balls, and return minivan transfers between Praslin Jetty and the resort.

Day 17: Kilwa Kisiwani (Tanzania)

Kilwa Kisiwani is a captivating UNESCO World Heritage site, off the southern coast of Tanzania. The island was a significant trade hub from the 13th to the 16th centuries, due to its control over the gold trade. One iconic structure is the Great Mosque, the oldest standing mosque on the East African coast. With its sixteen domed and vaulted bays, the mosque’s grand architecture reflects the city's golden age. EmeraldPLUS
Treasures of Kilwa Kisiwani
Reach the legendary Kilwa Ruins by tender or boat, coming ashore at Kilwa Kisiwani Island, where a stone pier leads directly into the heart of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. From the top of the pier, your guide will offer a brief introduction before you set off on a fascinating walking tour through one of East Africa’s most important medieval trading centres. Divided into small groups, you will explore evocative sites such as the Malindi Mosque and cemetery, the imposing Gereza fort, and Makutani, the former royal enclave with palaces, residences, and private mosques. Scattered throughout are additional mosques and the Great House, many remarkably well preserved, allowing you to vividly imagine the wealth and power of the sultans who once ruled here.

Day 18: Port information not found

Mafia has an incredibly diverse landscape, dotted with coconut and cashew nut plantations, palm trees, tidal mangroves and plump baobab trees standing in vast African savannah grasslands. The island is also famous for its population of whale sharks, attracting tourists who wish to swim with these gentle giants. The best time to see whale sharks is usually between October and February. EmeraldACTIVE

Chole Island Tour
Chole Island is one of the oldest inhabited islands in the Mafia archipelago. It has a long, varied history dating back to the 12th Century and was once the capital of Mafia. On this tour you can explore the ruins that have been overtaken by nature and see the Arabic and German influences, including a prison and customs house. Your guide will take you for a walk across the island through the small villages and varied vegetation (including baobab trees) and show you where traditional Swahili dhows are built by skilled craftsmen using hand tools. Chole also acts as a sanctuary for the Flying Foxes (Fruit Bats) which your guide will help you to see sleeping in the trees during the day.
Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 2 – 3 hours DiscoverMORE
Swimming with Whale Sharks (extra expense)
Set out from Kilindoni by motorboat for an unforgettable encounter with the ocean's largest fish, the whale shark. Accompanied by an experienced marine guide, you cruise the plankton-rich waters of Kilindoni Bay while the crew searches for the distinctive shapes and surface activity of these gentle filter feeders. When a whale shark is located and sea conditions permit, you receive guidance on entering the water respectfully before snorkelling nearby. From a suitable distance, you may watch these remarkable animals glide through the clear tropical water, appreciating their immense scale and graceful movement. Snorkelling equipment and life jackets are provided, and your guide explains the responsible wildlife practices that protect both guests and marine life. Those who prefer not to enter the water can remain aboard to enjoy whale-shark watching from the boat. As this is an encounter with wild animals, sightings cannot be guaranteed, making every experience distinct.
Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 4 hours 30 minutes Anchored: 07:00 – 18:00

Arrives On: 03 Mar 27

Day 19: Zanzibar (Tanzania)

Zanzibar is an archipelago off the coast of East Africa. It's part of Tanzania and consists of several islands, with Unguja (often referred to as Zanzibar) and Pemba being the largest. Known as the 'Spice Islands', Zanzibar has a rich history in the spice trade and it's still a major producer of cloves, nutmeg, cinnamon, and black pepper. 'Stone Town' is the historical heart of Zanzibar and a UNESCO World Heritage site — the narrow streets lined with coral-hewn houses blend African, European and Indian influences. Included Excursion
Secrets of Stone Town
Immerse yourself in the living history of Stone Town, the cultural soul of Zanzibar. A panoramic drive brings you to the bustling City Market, where tropical fruits, fresh spices, and the vibrant energy of daily life fill this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Your guide will recount Stone Town's pivotal role as a Swahili coastal trading hub, shaped by centuries of Afro-Asian exchange—and its darker past as one of East Africa's main slave ports. A solemn visit to the former slave chambers and the Anglican Church, built atop the old Slave Market, offers powerful insight into this era. Continue on foot through Stone Town's maze of narrow alleys, passing ornate Zanzibar doors, lively Jaw's Corner, and the historic Hamamni Persian Baths. Pause at Forodhani Gardens for views of the House of Wonders and Palace Museum, before exploring the atmospheric Old Arab Fort, now home to artisan stalls. Conclude your journey with a refreshing stop at the Zanzibar Serena before returning to the pier.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration 4 hours Included Excursion
Shuttle to Old Town area DiscoverMORE
Maruhubi Ruins and Spice Experience (extra expense)
Discover the vibrant flavours and fragrant landscapes of Zanzibar on this engaging spice tour through the island's lush countryside. From the pier, enjoy a scenic drive past the former residence of Dr. David Livingstone before visiting the ruins of Maruhubi Palace, once built as a harem and later destroyed by fire. Continuing inland, you'll explore verdant plantations where many spices grow in remote, off-road areas. Here, you can touch, smell, taste, and identify a remarkable range of spices and plants, while learning how they are used in local cuisine, cosmetics, dyes, and traditional medicines. Depending on the season, you may also sample fresh tropical fruits. Spice packets are available for purchase. Your tour concludes with a visit to the atmospheric Persian baths at Kidichi, built by Zanzibar's first Sultan for his Persian wife. Afterwards, relax on the return drive to the pier, enriched by the island's history and aromas.
Activity Level: Moderate, Duration 4 hours 35 minutes Docked: 07:00 – 18:00

Arrives On: 04 Mar 27

Day 20: Mombasa (Kenya)
