Day 4: Probolinggo (Indonesia)

Arriving in Probolinggo on Java’s eastern coast, you’ll have access to the spectacular landscapes of Bromo Tengger Semeru National Park, the true highlight of this port. Recognised for its dramatic volcanic landscapes, including the iconic Mount Bromo, the region offers an unforgettable glimpse into Java’s raw natural beauty. This visit focuses on exploring these extraordinary surroundings, making for a memorable and immersive experience.

Arrives On: 01 Jan 29

Day 5: Surabaya (Indonesia)

Known as the ’City of Heroes’, Surabaya is a dynamic metropolis shaped by its pivotal role in Indonesia’s struggle for independence. Today, it blends modern urban energy with historic landmarks that reflect its national significance. As one of Java’s main cities, Surabaya also serves as a key gateway to the island’s eastern highlights, offering insight into both contemporary Indonesian life and the region’s wider cultural and natural landscapes.

Arrives On: 02 Jan 29

Day 6: Karimunjava (Indonesia)

The Karimun Jawa Archipelago, set off the northern coast of Java, offers a remote and tranquil retreat of powdery beaches, clear waters and vibrant marine life. This secluded collection of islands provides a peaceful setting to relax and connect with Indonesia’s natural beauty. Due to its remote location and limited infrastructure, visits are subject to weather conditions, adding a sense of adventure to this off-the-beaten-path destination.

Arrives On: 03 Jan 29

Day 7: Semarang (Indonesia)

Semarang is the gateway to the magnificent Borobudur Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site-listed and the world’s largest Buddhist temple, built around 800 AD and once long hidden beneath the lush Javanese jungle. A visit here also opens a window onto vibrant local culture, striking rural landscapes and timeless Javanese traditions that continue to shape daily life.

Arrives On: 04 Jan 29

Day 9: Belitung Island (Indonesia)
