Day 2: Delos (Greece)

Delos, a small rocky island in the heart of the Cyclades archipelago, is one of the most important mythological and archaeological sites in Greece. In the afternoon, you will venture to Mykonos. The island's allure lies in its blend of traditional Greek culture and cosmopolitan flair. Whitewashed houses with vibrant blue doors line the winding streets of Mykonos Town. Discover MORE Guided tour of Delos (extra expense, must be pre-booked)

Set foot on a journey to the sacred island of Delos, a cradle of ancient Greek mythology and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Delos holds a unique place in history, believed to be the birthplace of Apollo and Artemis. Unveil the layers of mythology and history as you explore the extensive archaeological site that spans millennia. Delos served as a holy sanctuary for a millennium before it became the mythical birthplace of Apollo and Artemis in Olympian Greek mythology. Pilgrims from across Greece flocked to Apollo's sanctuary, transforming Delos into a prosperous trading port. The island is adorned with traces of civilizations that shaped the Aegean world from the 3rd millennium BC to the paleo-Christian era. Embark on a guided walking tour that takes you through the archaeological wonders of Delos. Explore the extensive site, where each step reveals the layers of history, from ancient sanctuaries to the remnants of prosperous civilizations. Delos has earned its place as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, a testament to its cultural and historical significance.

Arrives On: 25 May 25

Day 3: Pátmos (Greece)

Patmos is a small Greek island in the Aegean Sea steeped in religious history. The Monastery of Saint John the Theologian, a UNESCO World Heritage site, towers over the island's capital, Chora. Nearby you'll find the Cave of the Apocalypse, where, according to tradition, Saint John the Theologian wrote the Book of Revelation. The local cuisine of Patmos is a delightful mix of traditional Greek dishes and fresh seafood. Today choose between our Included Excursion or our EmeraldACTIVE option.

Included Excursion
Chora, Monastery of Saint John the Theologian and the Cave of the Apocalypse
The tour begins with a visit to the Cave of the Apocalypse, the site where the Book of Revelation, the final book of the Holy Bible, was conceived. In 95 A.D., during a time of Christian persecution, Saint John was exiled to the Island of Patmos, where he received the vision that inspired Revelation in this small cave, which has since become a revered place of worship and a significant pilgrimage destination. After leaving the Cave, you will drive to the historic village of Chora, perched atop a hill, where you'll have the chance to capture breathtaking panoramic views of the island and explore the stunning architecture of homes dating back to the 15th to 18th centuries. Chora, the island's capital, is home to the 11th-century Monastery of Saint John the Theologian. Here, you can gain insight into monastic life and immerse yourself in the rich history showcased by the magnificent ecclesiastical artifacts in its museum. The monastery boasts treasures such as frescoes depicting its founder, Christodoulou, and the miracles of St. John, along with ancient documents dating back to the 6th century, sacred vestments, silverware, and numerous icons, including a piece attributed to El Greco. From the Monastery, stroll through Chora's charming winding cobbled streets to the house of Simandiris. Here, you will enjoy a unique experience, exploring the interior of a traditional Patmian home filled with antique furniture, exquisite embroidery, and paintings collected by eight generations of the Simandiris family.

Downhill hike
Embark on a transformative journey to the enchanting Sacred Island of Patmos, nestled within the stunning Dodecanese archipelago. This remarkable experience weaves together a rich tapestry of spirituality, history, and breathtaking landscapes that will leave a lasting impression on your heart. Start your adventure with a scenic drive to Chora, a picturesque village that unfolds like a beautiful painting. Adorned with radiant white houses, Chora provides a striking contrast to the imposing Monastery of St. John, built in 1088 by the revered Christodoulos—a true testament to centuries of unwavering spiritual devotion. Step inside the Monastery of St. John, a bastion of faith featuring thick walls, battlements, and eight chapels. The charming courtyard, paved with pebbles and framed by graceful arches, leads you to the museum where you can admire an extraordinary collection of jewelled chalices, crowns, crosses, and religious artifacts. Delight in the intricate frescoes and explore historic writings from 1073, alongside icons and original works by the masterful El Greco. Stroll through the Old Town of Chora, a maze of narrow streets and delightful squares. As you wander the paths once trodden by locals, feel the echoes of history surrounding you. The tour also includes a visit to the Cave of the Apocalypse, the sacred site of the Revelation's origin—the final book of the Holy Bible. In 95 A.D., during a time of persecution, St. John was exiled to Patmos, where this humble cave became the backdrop for his visionary revelations. Today, it stands as a revered site of worship, attracting countless pilgrims. As you return to the port, retrace the footsteps of those who came before you, discovering Patmos's authentic charm with every step, which offers a unique glimpse into its cultural heritage.

Day 5: Kos (Greece)

Kos is a Greek island just four kilometres off the coast of Bodrum, Turkey. It's the birthplace of Hippocrates, the father of modern medicine, and home to several historic ruins, including an ancient agora, a Roman Odeon, and the Asklepion, an ancient healing temple.

DiscoverMORE Asclepion and Zia village with winery visit (extra expense)

Embark on a fascinating journey as we explore the heritage of Hippocrates, often hailed as the father of modern medicine, in his native land of Kos. Our adventure begins at the Asklepieion, an extraordinary sanctuary established in 460 B.C. in honour of Asclepius, the God of Medicine. Amidst the timeless ruins and sacred groves, the principles of Hippocratic Medicine were practiced, establishing the groundwork for contemporary healthcare. Wander through this historic site, where the intersection of healing and spirituality set the stage for one of the earliest hospitals in the world. Next, we'll venture into the charming village of Zia, perched on the slopes of Mount Dikaion. With its narrow winding streets and traditional houses, Zia captures the authentic essence of rural Kos. Pause to enjoy a traditional Greek coffee and indulge in delicious local delicacies while soaking in breathtaking views of Turkey and the neighbouring islands. The highlight of your excursion awaits at Winery, where you'll savour a wine tasting experience unlike any other. Delight in a curated selection of four exquisite wines, each reflecting the island's rich viticultural heritage. From crisp white wines to robust reds, every sip is a story of dedication and craftsmanship waiting to be told.
