Itinerary

Day 1: Darwin, Northern Territory (Australia)

Your adventure begins in Darwin, the tropical capital and gateway to the Northern Territory. Here you'll board your luxury Emerald yacht and set sail to explore the captivating waters of Indonesia. Please book your flight to arrive into Darwin prior to 02:00 PM.

Arrives On: 05 Oct 28

Day 3: Kai Islands (Indonesia)

Welcome to the Kai Islands. Known for their powdery white sand, considered to be some of the softest in the world, and crystal-clear turquoise waters, the Kai Islands offer an idyllic tropical setting with a sense of remoteness and untouched beauty.

Arrives On: 07 Oct 28

Day 4: Triton Bay (Indonesia)

Part of the Coral Triangle, Triton Bay is a remote and largely untouched paradise celebrated for its extraordinary marine biodiversity and dramatic coastal scenery. Towering limestone karsts rise from calm, protected waters, while beneath the surface lies a thriving ecosystem of vibrant coral gardens and abundant marine species. Its isolation enhances the sense of discovery, offering a rare glimpse into one of Indonesia’s most pristine underwater worlds.

Arrives On: 08 Oct 28

Day 5: Pulau Koon (Indonesia)

Pulau Koon is a secluded island sanctuary surrounded by some of the healthiest coral reefs in the region. Crystal-clear waters reveal a kaleidoscope of marine life, from colourful reef fish to larger pelagic species. With its untouched beaches and tranquil atmosphere, the island embodies a sense of pure remoteness, where nature remains largely undisturbed.

Arrives On: 09 Oct 28

Day 6: Fak Fak, Irian Jaya (Indonesia)

Fak Fak is a regional coastal town in West Papua that serves as an important gateway to the surrounding islands and coastal areas. Primarily a centre for local administration and trade, it offers insight into everyday life in Indonesia’s eastern provinces. As a stop along your immersive journey, Fak Fak provides a sense of regional context and continuity as you sail toward the remote natural highlights of Raja Ampat.

Arrives On: 10 Oct 28

Day 7: Misool, Raja Ampat (Indonesia)

Misool is one of the crown jewels of Raja Ampat, renowned for its labyrinth of limestone karsts, hidden lagoons and dazzling turquoise waters. Beneath the surface lies one of the richest marine ecosystems on Earth, with pristine coral reefs teeming with life. The archipelago’s remote location and protected status contribute to its reputation as a world-class destination for both natural beauty and biodiversity.

Arrives On: 11 Oct 28

Day 8: Raja Ampat Islands (Indonesia)

Pulau Penamu is famed for its elevated viewpoints that reveal sweeping panoramas of Raja Ampat’s iconic karst seascape. From above, clusters of jungle-covered islets rise dramatically from luminous blue waters, creating one of the region’s most unforgettable vistas. The island’s rugged terrain and grand outlooks make it a highlight for appreciating the scale and beauty of this remote archipelago.

Arrives On: 12 Oct 28

Day 9: Raja Ampat Islands (Indonesia)

Wayag stands as the visual icon of Raja Ampat, where dramatic limestone formations scatter across crystal-clear waters in a breathtaking natural display. Its panoramic viewpoints offer sweeping vistas of verdant islets and winding lagoons, often regarded as among the most spectacular in Indonesia. The sense of scale and untouched beauty here defines the essence of the region.

Arrives On: 13 Oct 28

Day 10: Raja Ampat Islands (Indonesia)

Wofoh Island offers a serene and intimate setting within Raja Ampat, surrounded by shallow turquoise lagoons and vibrant coral reefs. Its calm, clear waters and quiet beaches create a peaceful atmosphere, ideal for experiencing the natural harmony of this remote island environment.

Arrives On: 14 Oct 28

Day 11: Kri Island (Indonesia)

Situated at the heart of Raja Ampat’s biodiversity hotspot, Kri is known for its exceptionally rich marine life and thriving coral ecosystems. The surrounding waters are among the most species-rich on the planet, with an abundance of reef fish and pristine coral formations just below the surface, making it a true highlight of the region.

In the afternoon, visit Gam Island, a dense tropical jungle with flourishing coral reefs, creating a diverse and immersive natural environment. The island is home to unique wildlife and offers a strong sense of remoteness, where lush landscapes meet vibrant underwater ecosystems in one of Raja Ampat’s most captivating settings.

Arrives On: 15 Oct 28

Day 11: Gam Island (Indonesia)

Arrives On: 15 Oct 28

Day 12: Sorong (Indonesia)

Welcome to the bustling West Papua port town and gateway to Raja Ampat, Sorong, which marks the conclusion of your journey through one of the most biologically diverse regions on Earth. From here, you’ll be transferred to the airport for your included flight from Sorong to Bali, then transferred to a hotel for your overnight stay.
