Day 4: Alicante (Spain)

Along Spain's southeastern Costa Blanca coast, Alicante enjoys a lovely Mediterranean climate, bearing hot summers and mild winters, making it a popular holiday destination year-round. This port city is also known for its beautiful beaches such as Playa de San Juan and Postiguet Beach, which entice travellers from around the world. Set atop a hill in the heart of Alicante, you can discover the Castle of Santa Barbara, dating back to the 9th century. Today choose between our Included Excursion or EmeraldACTIVE option.

Included Excursion
Walk & Taste Alicante
Embark on an exclusive culinary journey through Alicante, one of the Mediterranean's most vibrant gastronomic destinations. Renowned for its rich heritage and devotion to locally sourced ingredients, this experience offers a taste of the region's flavors with elegance and authenticity. Your adventure begins at the Mercado Central, Alicante's central market and a treasure trove of fresh produce and artisanal delicacies. Here, you'll enjoy a curated tasting that showcases the essence of the region — a true introduction to the craftsmanship behind Alicante's cuisine. Next, take a leisurely, guided stroll through the city's historic heart. Along the way, you'll stop at one of Alicante's most iconic landmarks to savor a refined version of a beloved local treat: horchata de chufa, served chilled and velvety, paired with the delicate sweetness of a traditional fartón. This delightful experience captures the charm of the Mediterranean. Continue through the elegant streets to Plaza del Ayuntamiento, home to the Town Hall and the official zero-altitude reference point of Spain — a unique geographical and cultural landmark. Your journey concludes with an exclusive aperitif.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 3.75 hours

EmeraldACTIVE
Alicante & Downhill walk from Santa Barbara Castle
Explore Alicante on a captivating tour that blends history with leisure. Start with a scenic walk showcasing landmarks like the 18th-century Baroque town hall and the Museo de Hogueras, dedicated to the city's midsummer St. John's Eve celebration. After some free time, take a coach to the 9th-century Castle of Santa Bárbara, perched atop Mount Benacantil. The castle offers breathtaking views of the city and harbor. The tour concludes with a walk back to the port.

Activity Level: Strenuous, Duration: 3.15 hours

Docked: 12:00 - 22:00

Arrives On: 21 Oct 26

Day 5: Cartagena (Spain)

As a major naval station on the Mediterranean coast, Cartagena has been greatly influenced by various cultures over the centuries. This historical crossroads of civilisations is evident in the city's diverse architectural styles, ranging from Roman to Art Nouveau. A must-see landmark is the ancient Roman Theatre, unearthed in 1987 and restored for public viewing.

EmeraldPLUS
Spain's most noble tradition: the strikingly elegant Andalusian horses
Just a few kilometres from Cartagena, this charming ranch showcases magnificent pure Spanish-bred horses with elegant bloodlines. For over 40 years, the Conesa family has operated this ranch, where visitors can observe broodmares and foals, and witness Spanish horse training and stallion management. The experience includes snacks while watching a coordinated training by an Andalusian dancer and a stallion. Recognized as a finalist for the 2018 Seatrade Cruise Awards, this tour offers a unique glimpse into traditional ranch life and close interaction with nature and animals.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 3 hours

DiscoverMORE

Walking tour of Cartagena and Roman Theatre (extra expense)

Embark on a walking tour from the pier, following the sea wall to Town Hall Square and the main avenue, where you'll see striking modernist buildings from the early 20th century. Cartagena's historical significance, from a Carthaginian trading post in the 3rd century BC to an 18th-century naval base, is evident. Visit the Roman Theatre, built between the 5th and 1st centuries BC, which highlights the city's ancient glory. Explore the Old Quarter, showcasing "Modernist" townhouses from the late 19th to early 20th century, reflecting the wealth from a mining boom.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 4 hours

Docked: 08:00 - 18:00

Arrives On: 22 Oct 26

Day 6: Almería (Spain)

Tucked away on the southeast corner of Spain's Mediterranean coast, one of the most remarkable features of Almería is its diverse landscapes. This Andalusian city is the home of the Tabernas Desert, the only desert in Europe, as well as the imposing Sierra de Alhamilla mountain range and captivating coastal stretches.

DiscoverMORE

Almeria City Walk and Tapas (extra expense)

Experience the rich history of Almeria, once an Arab stronghold, with a motorcoach ride to downtown, followed by a walking tour of the old town. Visit the Gothic Cathedral of Almeria, designed for dual purposes as a church and a defence against Berber pirates. Along the way, explore the 17th-century Convent of Las Puras, the Episcopal Palace, Cervantes Theatre, and the Mercantile Center. Conclude your adventure with tapas and refreshments at a local restaurant before heading back to the pier.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 3.25 hours

DiscoverMORE

Coast and Villages Panoramic Drive (extra expense)

This tour explores stunning mountainous landscapes, the Tabernas Desert, and the charming village of Mojacar. Known for its flat-roofed houses and white-washed walls, Mojacar offers breathtaking sea views. Stroll through its winding streets and discover the fortified church. On the return journey to the ship, you'll enjoy a scenic coastal route, passing the beautiful Sierra Cabrera Natural Park. This adventure combines natural beauty, cultural richness, and picturesque scenery, making it a memorable experience.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 5 hours

Docked: 08:00 - 18:00

Arrives On: 23 Oct 26

Day 7: Gibraltar (Gibraltar)

Immerse yourself in the territory of Gibraltar, notable for its incredible position on the southern tip of the Iberian Peninsula, akin to a 'guardian' to the entrance to the Mediterranean Sea.

It's interesting to note that despite being surrounded by Spain, Gibraltar has been under British rule since 1704. From traditional English pubs to Moroccan tea houses, Gibraltar offers visitors a truly unique cultural fusion.

DiscoverMORE

Tour of the Rock (extra expense)
The Rock of Gibraltar, a 1400-foot landmark, is tied to the legend of Hercules and features a British flair with its policemen and pubs. Our tour begins at the British/Spanish Frontier, leading us to Europa Point for panoramic views and photo opportunities of the Mediterranean and Atlantic convergence. We explore St. Michael's Cave's stunning formations set to classical music, spot the playful Rock Apes at King Charles "V" Wall, and pass the historic Moorish Castle before concluding the tour in the upper town area.

Activity Level: Moderate, Duration: 2 hours
