Day 2: Vernon (France)

Wake in Vernon, a well-preserved medieval town that hugs the southern bank of the river. Its everyday beauty will be enhanced by Christmas decorations, twinkling lights and a welcoming market in the town centre. Most travellers see Vernon as simply the gateway to Giverny, home of the famed Impressionist painter Monet for more than 40 years. But it has many charms of its own, including numerous antique and vintage stores, beautiful architecture and a striking Gothic church. Don’t miss the 14th-century mill, which creates a mirror-like reflection in the river and was painted many times by Monet.This evening, join your fellow guests for a welcome dinner on board. Included ExcursionIn the footsteps of Claude MonetTake a tour of Giverny Gardens, Monet’s home until his death in 1926. Walk through the rooms where he lived and worked, and the restored, elaborate gardens with their unique Japanese bridges, which inspired some of his most iconic pieces, including the beloved Water Lilies series. You’ll get a sense of the extraordinary play of colour and light on nature and how this translated to Monet’s distinctive Impressionist art. Explore these tranquil spaces at your own pace and absorb the atmosphere that sparked his creativity. DiscoverMORERouen by Night (extra expense)After your ship docks in Rouen later tonight, set out to explore Normandy’s vibrant cultural and historic capital. See its Gothic architectural gems illuminated with Christmas displays and fairytale medieval laneways bustling with people under the glow of the stars. ## Day 3: Rouen (France)

Welcome to Rouen, a beautiful city set along the banks of the Seine and steeped in history and heritage, from Vikings and saints to renowned artists. It is forever linked with the French national icon Joan of Arc, who was burned at the stake here in 1431. At Christmas, it transforms into a magical winter destination known as Rouen Givrée (Frosty Rouen). Light shows will be projected onto the facade of its famed Gothic Notre-Dame Cathedral, the tallest in France. More than 80 streets and squares will be lit up with decorations, and you can find market stalls, ice skating rinks, entertainment and, of course, Santa himself. Included ExcursionWalking tour of RouenJoin a guided walk through Rouen’s medieval centre. Hear fascinating tales about Rollo, the Viking chieftain, proclaimed the first Duke of Normandy, and how his legacy helped shape not only this region but the course of European history. Visit iconic sites including the bustling Old Marketplace, the majestic Cathedral district and the charming Saint Maclou Quarter. EmeraldPLUSWorld War II lecture on boardBe further immersed in the complexity and colour of Normandy’s history with a captivating on board lecture about World War II.
