Day 2: Breisach (Germany)

Perched high above the Rhine River and surrounding vineyards, Breisach is where Germany’s Black Forest spills into the lush Alsace region. It’s another town with influences from both cultures, as well as a strong passion for wine. It centres around the hilltop St Stephen’s Cathedral, an impressive Romanesque-Gothic structure that dominates the skyline and can be seen from a great distance. Included Excursion

Guided tour of Colmar
Spend a magical morning in nearby Colmar on the French side just across the border. As you walk down the cobblestone lanes, it’s easy to imagine the characters from the Grimm’s Fairy Tales here, with half-timbered façades adorned with window boxes full of colourful blooms. EmeraldACTIVE
Canoeing on the Rhine
Travel upstream to Steinenstadt and board a canoe to paddle along the quiet waters of the Upper Rhine. You’ll get a new perspective on this famed waterway, taking in local plant and animal life as you are immersed in beautiful natural surroundings.

Arrives On: 01 Apr 28

Day 3: Strasbourg (France)

This morning, you will discover Strasbourg, the medieval capital of France’s Alsace Region. Set on the border between France and Germany, the city is a unique blend of cultures, which can be seen in its architecture, language and food. The World Heritage-listed centre is threaded with beautiful canals lined with traditional buildings and the breathtaking Strasbourg Cathedral, which was the tallest building in the world for more than 220 years. Included Excursion
Hidden treasures of Strasbourg
Discover the city’s charm on a walking tour through Petite France, featuring storybook canals, half-timbered houses, and the covered bridges. See the Vauban Dam and the World Heritage-listed Neustadt quarter, home to Strasbourg’s administrative buildings. Afterwards, enjoy some free time to explore the city at your own pace. DiscoverMORE

Day 10: Rotterdam (Netherlands)

Arrives On: 09 Apr 28

Day 11: Amsterdam (Netherlands)

Your journey concludes this morning in Amsterdam. After breakfast, it's time to say farewell to your fellow guests and disembark the ship for your transfer to the airport, taking memories of the beautiful Moselle with its vineyards and the castles on the legendary Rhine. Due to new restrictions on cruise ships at Amsterdam's city docks, your cruise is now likely to embark and/or disembark at a port outside central Amsterdam. If your ship does not have a central Amsterdam docking, Emerald Cruises will provide a central Amsterdam meeting point and transfers to your ship as required. These changes are required by local authorities and are in line with our booking terms which allow changes to berthing or dock locations and ports where operationally necessary. You will be advised of the confirmed docking location prior to departure. This itinerary is a guide only and may be amended for operational reasons such as high and low water. As such, the cruise may operate altered from that stated above. Please refer to our terms and conditions for further information. Please note: Preview itinerary subject to change.
