Day 17: Banjul (Gambia)

Where the Gambia River flows into the ocean, experience the vibrant life of the city in all its colours. Banjul's Albert Market, a lively tapestry of exotic fruits and handicrafts is filled with the scents of the tropics. The palms that line the river whisper of colonial times, while Arch 22 proudly rises up into the sky. Everywhere you go, you will feel the rhythm of everyday life as drums ring through the air and the ocean glitters on the horizon. Banjul is lively, full of movement and a centrepiece of West Africa that never stands still.

Arrives On: 23 Feb 26

Day 18: Banjul (Gambia)

Your ship is anchored between the impressive island of Kunta Kinteh and the small town of Albreda. Surrounded by the calm waters of the Gambia River and a cultural landscape steeped in tradition, this is a place where you can feel the past come alive. Explore the historic sites in Albreda, which, like the island of Kunta Kinteh, are UNESCO World Heritage Sites, and immerse yourself in the moving history behind the origins of these places and the transatlantic slave trade.
