Itinerary

Day 1: Monte-Carlo (Monaco)

Arrives On: 14 May 26

Day 2: Portofino (Italy)

Once a simple fishing village, Portofino became an insider tip in social circles at the dawn of the 20th century and then quickly became very popular. Painters and writers found inspiration here, bohemians celebrated life – and exclusivity. Even today, the flair of sophisticated elegance exudes the narrow lanes. Enjoy the atmosphere on a stroll along the waterfront promenade or with a cappuccino, overlooking the sparkling boats in the harbour. Venture up to the Church of San Giorgio and Castello Brown – the challenging climb is rewarded with spectacular views across the bay. When tracing remains of the belle époque, the legendary Splendido Hotel* is a must-see. You'll almost feel like you have come across the Great Gatsby himself in his reading chair.

Arrives On: 15 May 26

Day 3: Calvi, Corsica (France)

Calvi is one of the most beautiful towns in Corsica, with a small, winding old town characterised by centuries-old streets and squares. As early as the 1920s, travellers in search of authenticity and the unknown were drawn here – far away from the wild party nights and hotspots of the Mediterranean. The flora makes excursions a fragrant experience: cistus, myrtle, thyme, lavender and rosemary characterise the landscape alongside the typical Corsican maquis. A unique natural phenomenon are the so-called “tafoni”, fascinating weathering formations in the rocks that resemble honeycombs and give the landscape an almost magical character.

Arrives On: 16 May 26

Day 4: Cannes (France)

St-Tropez, with its picturesque streets, colourful houses and luxurious Cote d’Azur lifestyle, has a captivating charm of its own. The town, once a tranquil fishing village, was made famous in the 1960s by Brigitte Bardot and the international jet set. Artists like Paul Signac and Henri Matisse found inspiration here at the end of the 19th century – and today you can admire their work in the Musee de l’Annonciade. The port, the early 17th-century citadel and the Place des Lices can be discovered on a charming walk around the old town. Cannes is the epitome of glitz and glamour, and you’ll be right in the middle of it all during the famous Film Festival. Stroll along the famous Promenade de la Croisette and enjoy the breathtaking view of the azure-blue sea. The global high society will be teeming in the narrow streets, and the red carpet will be rolled out for international film stars. But behind the glittering facade lies a charming old town, Le Suquet, with narrow lanes and magnificent views over the bay. The art of French living meets glamorous international style between the marina and the fine sandy beach.

Arrives On: 17 May 26

Day 5: Nice (France)

Arrives On: 18 May 26
