Itinerary

Day 1: Port Louis (Mauritius)

Arrives On: 18 Dec 27

Day 2: Port de Pointe des Galets (Réunion)

The island of Reunion is shaped by an impressive chain of volcanoes, the highest of which, Piton des Neiges and Piton de la Fournaise, stretch high up into the blue sky. The diverse landscape is a paradise for hikers and nature lovers. Thanks to its fascinating biodiversity on land and underwater and the natural beauty of its scenery, the island has been awarded UNESCO World Heritage Site status. A visit to Reunion will be rounded off with a tasting of Creole cuisine, with its impressive variety and intense flavours.

Arrives On: 19 Dec 27

Day 5: Victoria, Mahé (Seychelles)

Victoria, the capital of the Seychelles, exudes relaxed charm – lively and colourful during the day, atmospheric and filled with tropical lightness in the evening. A stroll through the town offers insights into the island of Mahe and its diverse culture. You'll pass the bustling market with its exotic spices and fresh fish and admire the striking clock tower – a relic from the British colonial era – as well as the colourful Hindu temple. The Morne Seychellois nature reserve lies south-west of Victoria. Its 905 m (2,969 ft) high peak of the same name is the highest point in the Seychelles. The national park features dense rainforests and provides spectacular views over Mahe and the surrounding islands. The beaches in the vicinity, including the popular Beau Vallon, are ideal for relaxing and offer perfect conditions for swimming, snorkelling or enjoying the sunset.

Arrives On: 22 Dec 27

Day 7: Victoria, Mahé (Seychelles)

La Digue, the fourth largest island in the Seychelles, is legendary for its relaxed atmosphere and imposing granite cliffs: the colossal rounded rocks are particularly impressive at the idyllic Anse Source d'Argent, which is perfect for bathing thanks to its shallow turquoise waters. There are hardly any cars on La Digue and most people use bicycles to get around. It's a great way to explore the island and its hidden wild beaches in the north. In the south of the island is the L'Union Estate, a former plantation estate, which provides insights into the traditional trades of the island and is home to two extremely rare species of terrapin.

Arrives On: 24 Dec 27

Day 8: Seychelles (Seychelles)

Curieuse, the fifth-largest island in the Inner Seychelles, is located very close to its sister island Praslin and is a true natural paradise. The island, which is only about 3 km² (1.1 mi.²) in size, delights visitors with a diverse mangrove landscape where eight different species grow. Curieuse has been a protected nature reserve and part of the Curieuse Marine National Park for decades. A research station and a rescue and breeding station are dedicated to the conservation of Aldabra giant tortoises. visitors have the rare opportunity to get up close to these impressive animals in the wild. In the south-west of the island, the historic Doctor's House – once a leper colony, now a museum – tells the eventful history of the island. Look forward to an exclusive destination whose backdrop promises a variety of experiences until late in the evening.

Arrives On: 25 Dec 27

Day 9: Praslin Island (Seychelles)

White sandy beaches lined with palm forests, including Anse Georgette and Anse Lazio, are idyllic picture-perfect spots on Praslin, the second-largest island in the Inner Seychelles. Anse Lazio in particular, surrounded by impressive granite cliffs, is one of the most beautiful beaches in the region. The island's interior is home to Praslin's national park, the UNESCO World Heritage Site Vallee de Mai. This is where the ancient Seychelles coco de mer palm trees, some of which are over 1,000 years old, grow. Together with around 43 other species of plant and rare animals like the black parrot, they form a unique natural paradise.

Arrives On: 26 Dec 27

Day 13: Maldives Islands (Maldives)

Countless palm trees and surrounded by a wide sandy beach and crystal-clear water. Enjoy some wonderfully relaxing hours in the natural paradise of the Maldives just as you wish. Stroll along the fine sand, go for a swim in the pleasantly warm sea or simply unwind on the beach. The reefs and lagoons are home to a colourful underwater world that you can explore while snorkelling.

Arrives On: 30 Dec 27

Day 14: Maldives Islands (Maldives)

Arrives On: 31 Dec 27

Day 16: Hambantota (Sri Lanka)

The south coast of Sri Lanka is your gateway to the island's wild side: Hambantota, the centre of the district of the same name, is the perfect base for exploring the impressive wilderness and natural beauties of Sri Lanka. Nearby is Yala National Park, famous for having the highest concentration of leopards in the world and for its fascinating animal kingdom. You can follow in their tracks on a photo safari. Udawalawe National Park around the shores of Udawalawe Reservoir has a large elephant population – in the attached elephant orphanage visitors can learn interesting facts about these gentle giants. Bundala National Park offers plenty of variety: Around 200 species of bird spend the winter here. In the evening, the city also shows itself from its most beautiful side and invites you to enjoy whiling away some time.

Arrives On: 02 Jan 28

Day 17: Colombo (Sri Lanka)

Arrives On: 03 Jan 28

Day 18: Colombo (Sri Lanka)

Arrives On: 04 Jan 28
