Day 2: Karlskrona (Sweden)

The pretty little Swedish city is a great place to explore on foot. The main street Ronnebygatan beckons with a wealth of shops, cafes and restaurants. The Naval Museum is also worth a detour for an overview of the different periods of the Swedish navy.

Arrives On: 10 Jul 24

Departs On: 10 Jul 24

Day 3: Port information not found

After cruising through the Stockholm archipelago, you'll arrive in the cosmopolitan Swedish capital, which will greet you with a microcosm of galleries and little boutiques. See the old town and the royal palace with a guided walk*. Alternatively, visit the Swedish royal family's residence at the baroque Drottningholm Palace* or the Moderna Museet*, which is home to one of Europe's most important collections of 20th-century art.

Arrives On: 11 Jul 24

Arrives On: 12 Jul 24

Day 5: Tallinn (Estonia)

Toompea Hill rises in the centre of Tallinn's old town, providing a great view of the UNESCO World Heritage Site with its medieval roofs, towers and streets. Learn interesting information about the Hanseatic history on a visit to the Estonian Maritime Museum*, combined with an exciting tour of Tallinn's creative scene in the Kalamaja district*. Relax with a stroll through the city's rich tradition of coffee shop culture* with multiple stops to enjoy a taste yourself.

Arrives On: 13 Jul 24

Day 6: Helsinki (Finland)

The "Paris of the north" is a real treat, full of boulevards and classical architecture. Discover sights such as Senate Square with its government buildings, the cathedral, Sibelius Park and the Temppeliaukio Church, which is carved into the granite rock. Art fans can trace the footsteps of Alvar Aalto*, known as a pioneer of Finnish architecture.

Arrives On: 14 Jul 24

Day 7: Visby (Sweden)

Explore the "Rose City" with its mild climate as well as its historic warehouses and the old Hanseatic harbour individually. Alternatively, you can get an impression of the scenic beauty of the island of Gotland on a panoramic trip across Gotland* or on a coastal hike*.

Arrives On: 15 Jul 24

Day 8: Riga (Latvia)

Visit historic Riga with its venerable Alberta Street - a "textbook of European Art Nouveau" according to UNESCO - St. Peter's Church and Riga Cathedral. Or you can treat yourself to some relaxation in the popular Baltic Sea resort of Jurmala*, which invites you with its beautiful beach cafés and an endlessly long white sandy beach.

Arrives On: 16 Jul 24

Departs On: 16 Jul 24

Day 10: Gdansk (Poland)

The former Hanseatic city on the Polish Baltic coast is characterised by its long history, which is reflected in its artfully restored medieval core. Visit the famous Marienburg Castle, one of the mightiest knight's castles in Europe, on a walking tour* or combine your exploration on foot with a boat trip on the city's waterways*. An alternative excursion takes you to the popular Baltic Sea resort of Sopot*, a hotspot for bathing fans from all over the country in summer.

Arrives On: 18 Jul 24

Day 11: Klaipeda (Lithuania)

Klaipeda is the perfect starting point for an excursion to the Curonian Spit*, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk to the thatched red wooden house with blue-and-white shutters that belonged to Thomas Mann from 1929 onwards, which has now been converted into a small museum to commemorate him. Or for something more adventurous, pick up the pace with some land sailing on the beach*.

Arrives On: 19 Jul 24
