Itinerary

Day 1: Santa Cruz de Tenerife (Spain)

Arrives On: 29 Oct 26

Day 2: Las Palmas de Gran Canaria (Spain)

Gran Canaria's lively capital, Las Palmas, combines culture and beaches in a unique way. In the old town of Vegueta, cobbled streets, colonial facades and the Cathedral of Santa Ana reveal the beauty of centuries past, while Las Canteras beach invites you to enjoy the relaxed island life right in the heart of the metropolis. Gran Canaria itself fascinates visitors with its extraordinary natural diversity: the famous Maspalomas dunes stretch out to the south while the mighty Roque Nublo mountain towers over the centre as a landmark. Hiking trails lead through pine and laurel forests, past extinct volcanic craters and up to Pico de la Nieves, the second-highest point on the island, where breathtaking views can be enjoyed.

Arrives On: 30 Oct 26

Day 5: Dakar (Senegal)

The Atlantic waves meet the coast at Dakar and the city itself seems to sway to their rhythm. There's a lot going on in the colourful streets and the markets are filled with fragrances and sounds. Echoes of the past, the dark history of the slave island Ile de Goree, can still be felt here now. And yet hope is in the air: drums, lively street music, children's laughter and the smiles on people's faces tell the story of a new beginning. Dakar is a kaleidoscope of colour and emotion, a city that never stands still and is always alert, always in motion, full of life and energy.

Arrives On: 02 Nov 26

Day 6: Banjul (Gambia)

Where the Gambia River flows into the ocean, experience the vibrant life of the city in all its colours. Banjul's Albert Market, a lively tapestry of exotic fruits and handicrafts is filled with the scents of the tropics. The palms that line the river whisper of colonial times, while Arch 22 proudly rises up into the sky. Everywhere you go, you will feel the rhythm of everyday life as drums ring through the air and the ocean glitters on the horizon. Banjul is lively, full of movement and a centrepiece of West Africa that never stands still.

Arrives On: 03 Nov 26

Day 13: Luanda (Angola)

Life never stands still in the streets of Luanda: the rhythmic beating of hands on drums, the scent of grilled fish and the warmth of a city that makes the most of life – a blend of modernity and tradition. Along the Marginal promenade, the Atlantic waves shimmer and the Sao Miguel fortress stands over the capital city of Angola like a silent guardian. Here, state-of-the-art buildings meet colonial relics and the Mercado do Artesanato reveals a bright kaleidoscope of colours and fragrances: Luanda has its own unique way of bringing contrasts together.

Arrives On: 10 Nov 26

Day 14: Lobito (Angola)

Like a gleaming gem, Lobito nestles in the wide arc of the bay of the same name. Palm trees line the Avenida Marginal and on the horizon fishing boats bob up and down on the glistening water, while the tropical sun caresses the coastline. Here, the city's colonial past meets the present-day life of a lively port city, whose houses tell the tale of ancient trading routes. The tranquillity of the sea and the hustle and bustle of the port form a harmonious backdrop to the meeting point between modern life in Angola and the traces left behind by its history.

Arrives On: 11 Nov 26

Day 17: Walvis Bay (Namibia)

Walvis Bay nestles softly in the coastline of Namibia, where the dunes of the Namib desert meet the deep blue of the Atlantic. Flamingoes and pelicans gather at the lagoons, while dolphins glide playfully through the glittering waves. The panorama of golden dunes and blue water seems surreal, as if nature is revealing its most beautiful colours. The breeze carries the salty scent of the sea over the waterfront promenade as the fishing boats bob up and down on the waves in the distance. Walvis Bay is a place in which the bleak grandeur of the desert and the tranquillity of the ocean come together in a magical way.

Arrives On: 14 Nov 26

Day 18: Walvis Bay (Namibia)

Arrives On: 15 Nov 26

Day 19: Lüderitz (Namibia)

In the barren expanse of the Namib desert, Luderitz appears like a mirage on the edge of the Atlantic. The colonial houses with their bright facades tell the story of the town's past, while time seems to have stood still in the ghost town of Kolmanskop. Penguins and flamingoes gather at the water and the natural beauty seems raw and untamed. Luderitz, where the desert meets the sea, is a place full of contrasts, in which tranquillity, melancholy and the beauty of solitude have a story to tell.

Arrives On: 16 Nov 26

Day 21: Cape Town (South Africa)

At the foot of the imposing Table Mountain lies Cape Town, a lively metropolis and one of the most beautiful cities in the world. The charming blend of Victorian villas on Long Street and modern skyscrapers in the financial district are what give the city its unique character. The popular Victoria & Alfred Waterfront with its boutiques, cafes and excellent restaurants will make visitors' hearts soar. A cable car ride to the plateau of Table Mountain promises to be an exciting experience and offers a magnificent view over the city and peninsula. This stretches as far as the Cape of Good Hope, where idyllic beach resorts meet unspoilt nature, making Cape Town an even more unforgettable destination.
