Day 3: Stavanger (Norway)

From impressive fjords, such as the Lysefjord with its steep cliffs, to idyllic sandy beaches along the coast – there is plenty for nature lovers to explore here. Explore the Lysefjord by excursion boat or speedy RIB. You can explore the charming old town of Stavanger on foot, by Nordic Walking or by Segway – Stavanger is a real treasure trove of possibilities.

Day 4: Geiranger (Norway)

Deeply carved into the Norwegian mountains, the Geirangerfjord winds its way inland: a masterpiece of nature, whose emerald-green waters reflect the surrounding panorama like a mirror. Small streams plunge into the depths between tranquil banks and steep mountain slopes. One of the most impressive moments is the spectacle of the “Seven Sisters” – seven tall waterfalls that dance like a veil of light and spray on the rock faces. At the end of the spectacular landscape, Geiranger welcomes you with grass-covered houses, babbling streams and flowering slopes. Here, the world seems to stand still for a moment before the surrounding mountains beckon you to explore further.

Arrives On: 24 May 28

Day 5: Trondheim (Norway)

Trondheim, with its idyllic location on a peninsula in the Trondheimfjord, combines over 1,000 years of history with modern urban life. In the centre of the city is the Torget marketplace, surrounded by historic streets and the Art Museum. A particularly impressive landmark of the city is Nidaros Cathedral, one of the largest Gothic buildings in Scandinavia and once the burial site of kings. North of the marketplace is the Stiftsgarden, a magnificent 18th-century wooden palace, which is now used as a royal residence. A walk over the old town bridge, also known as the “Portal of Happiness” due to its decorative red portals, leads visitors into the Bakklandet district with its little cafes and colourful wooden houses.

Day 6: Svartisen Glacier (Norway)

Svartisen, the second-biggest glacier in Norway, covers a surface area of around 370 km² (143 mi.²) in the north-west of the country. The area is a real paradise for nature-lovers and adventure seekers, who come to see the remote icy landscapes of the Arctic in all their glory. The glacier is composed of two parts, the Ostisen and the Vestisen, which are separated by a valley and offer a stunning scene of steep mountain peaks and deep-blue ice fields. A visit to Svartisen is a journey into the silent and sublime beauty of a world of ice.

Day 7: Leknes (Norway)

Majestic mountains, deep-blue fjords, green valleys and idyllic beaches – the Lofoten Islands are a unique scenic location in the north of Norway. The 80 or so islands north of the Arctic Circle stretch for over a hundred kilometres along the west coast and are a paradise for adventure seekers and hikers. At the heart of the island world, Leknes is the ideal starting point for discovering the unspoilt natural scenery of the Lofoten Islands.

Day 8: Honningsvåg (Norway)

In the north of Norway on the island of Mageroya lies Honningsvag, the gateway to the legendary North Cape. With a population of around 2,300, Honningsvag is the administrative centre of the Nordkapp municipality and is known for its fishing industry and tourism. The town was rebuilt after the Second World War and is now a mix of tradition and modernity. Around 30 km (19 mi.) away, the globe monument at the North Cape is the symbol of the northernmost point of the European continent. Impressive slate cliffs reach far out into the Arctic Ocean, forming a spectacular backdrop especially in late summer, when the sun stays over the horizon for two and a half months. Honningsvag is a meeting point between the raw Nordic climate and the forces of nature.

Day 9: Tromsø (Norway)

Often called the “Gateway to the Arctic”, Tromso is the largest city in northern Norway. Nestled between fjords and mountains, it is a perfect place to enjoy the midnight sun. Tromso’s charming old town is on the island of Tromsoya, which is connected to the mainland by the impressive Tromsobrua bridge. A cable car provides an easy way up the Storsteinen, the local mountain, and from here you can enjoy breathtaking views of the impressive Arctic Cathedral featuring one of Europe’s largest stained-glass windows and the surrounding Arctic landscapes.

Arrives On: 29 May 28

Day 11: Molde (Norway)

Molde, on Romdalsfjord, is also known as the “City of Roses” because of its many rose gardens. A walk through the old town will take you past colourful facades, the cathedral and to the Romsdal museum, which offers interesting insights into the history of the region. At the Varden viewpoint, visitors can enjoy the breathtaking panoramic views of the 222 surrounding peaks, most of which are higher than 1,000 m (3,280 ft), making Molde a popular destination for hikers.

Day 12: Bergen (Norway)

Nestled between picturesque fjords and steep hillsides, Norway’s second-largest city, Bergen, exudes the charm of a lively coastal city. The Hanseatic quarter of Bryggen, with its colourful wooden houses as a reminder of the city’s trading and seafaring history, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and gives Bergen its unique character. A walk along the harbour, where fishing boats moor up in the mornings, leads you to the busy fish market – a place full of aromas where fresh specialities are sold straight off the boats. The city brings visitors under its spell with its harmonious blend of history, liveliness and breathtaking natural scenery.
