Itinerary

Day 1: Hamburg (Germany)

Arrives On: 20 Dec 25

Day 2: Port information not found

Treat all your senses to an exceptional winter cruise on the HANSEATIC nature to welcome in the New Year. Glittering landscapes and illuminated cities, shimmering stars and maybe even the magical Northern Lights: this route is packed with the very best that Swedish and Finnish Lapland have to offer. The festivities for real explorers begin with views of marshes, forests and hills on the daytime passage through the Kiel Canal.

Arrives On: 21 Dec 25

Day 4: Visby (Sweden)

On Gotland, you will be welcomed with “God Jul” – merry Christmas! The Swedish summer destination also has a special appeal in winter. In Visby, you can enjoy the Nordic Christmas spirit as you stroll through the narrow streets with their Christmas decorations.

Arrives On: 23 Dec 25

Day 5: Gulf of Bothnia (Finland)

Today you will celebrate Christmas Eve as never before: in a cosy, personal and maritime atmosphere on board the HANSEATIC nature, with views over the wide expanse of the northern extension of the Baltic Sea, the Gulf of Bothnia. Your best present will be time to yourself, perhaps to go on a culinary voyage of discovery, visit the OCEAN SPA or attend fascinating expert presentations. With a little luck, you will also be able to see the Northern Lights in the clear northern sky.

Arrives On: 24 Dec 25

Day 7: Kemi (Finland)

On Boxing Day, you will leave Kemi in Finland and head for Rovaniemi<sup>1</sup> to visit Santa Claus in his official home town. Lit up with Christmas lights, the town on the Arctic Circle is enchanting with its arts and crafts and “Elves Forest”. Activities like snowshoe hiking<sup>1</sup> in the snowy spruce forest or a snowmobile safari<sup>1</sup> through Finnish Lapland are a gift for nature lovers.

Arrives On: 26 Dec 25

Day 8: Luleå (Sweden)

There is also plenty to do and see in Lulea. Winter hike or ice trail? Frozen waters make it easy to make the transition. If you're looking for a sense of pure adventure, go for a ride on a fat bike<sup>1</sup> across the ice and snow or a winter experience with huskies<sup>1</sup>. Perhaps here you will get another chance to see the mysterious Northern Lights. Shed light on the Gammelstad Church Town<sup>1</sup> UNESCO World Heritage Site on an atmospheric guided tour with torches.

Arrives On: 27 Dec 25

Day 9: Umeå (Sweden)

A winter wonderland also awaits around Umea, the cultural capital of northern Sweden, surrounded by wild nature. Cross-country skiing<sup>1</sup> in snowy Tavelsjö or a dog sled ride<sup>1</sup> – where will the mood take you today?

Arrives On: 28 Dec 25

Day 10: Sundsvall (Sweden)

The centre of Sundsvall is a well-preserved district from the late 19th century. Explore the “Stone City” at your leisure or, if you’re feeling energetic, climb the local hill.

Arrives On: 29 Dec 25

Day 11: Stockholm (Sweden)

Experience Stockholm in a special way: on a winter walk<sup>1</sup> through the magical old town or on a winter visit to the Skansen open-air museum<sup>1</sup> with its traditional Christmas and arts and craft market. Your travel concierge will arrange your individual activities and cultural programmes in the Swedish capital in advance on request.

Arrives On: 30 Dec 25

Day 12: Stockholm (Sweden)

Celebrate New Year’s Eve on deck in front of the old town illuminated by fireworks. Excellent front-row seats in Stockholm for a particularly stylish end to the year.

Arrives On: 31 Dec 25

Day 13: Stockholm (Sweden)

It’s all about “New Year, new impressions” as you cruise through the Stockholm Archipelago –with knowledgeable commentary from your team of experts. Enjoy the clear air on the open deck areas of the ship.

Arrives On: 01 Jan 26

Day 14: Port information not found

Impressive views also await you when cruising through the archipelago off Karlskrona. Afterwards, as you walk through the picturesque baroque city, you will find the perfect balance between culture and relaxation – in accordance with the Swedish lagom way of life.

Arrives On: 02 Jan 26

Day 14: Karlskrona (Sweden)

Impressive views also await you when cruising through the archipelago off Karlskrona. Afterwards, as you walk through the picturesque baroque city, you will find the perfect balance between culture and relaxation – in accordance with the Swedish lagom way of life.

Arrives On: 02 Jan 26

Day 15: Copenhagen (Denmark)

A cosy atmosphere, glogg and pastries will accompany your visit to Copenhagen. Take a relaxed stroll through the city, empty of all the hordes of summer visitors, or visit Zeeland's fairy-tale castles<sup>1</sup>. This hygge feeling and your many wintry impressions will stay with you for a long time to come. What a great start to the New Year!

Arrives On: 03 Jan 26

Day 17: Hamburg (Germany)

Arrives On: 05 Jan 26
