Itinerary

Day 1: Palmeira, Sal Island (Cape Verde)

Arrives On: 30 Oct 26

Day 2: Praia, Santiago Island (Cape Verde)

A sea full of contrasts awaits you on Cape Verde. This is best represented on Santiago, the largest island in the archipelago: green valleys, impressive mountains and desert-like regions are special highlights, as well as colonial architecture and African zest for life. Santiago is the cultural and historical hub of the group of islands, and its modern capital Praia offers a mix of traditional culture and colonial heritage. Music is everywhere here – especially the Batuque and Funana rhythms, which are deeply rooted in the culture of the island. Celebrations and dances reveal the locals' zest for life and warmth. The city of Cidade Velha was the first European colonial settlement in the tropics and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This combination of natural diversity, cultural significance and districts with urban flair ensures a real wealth of contrasts.

Arrives On: 31 Oct 26

Day 9: Saint Helena (Saint Helena, Ascension and Tristan da Cunha)

St Helena, with its fascinating mix of unspoilt nature and historical relics, is famous for being Napoleon's place of exile – he spent his last years on the island at Longwood House. Prepare to be surprised by the beautiful scenery, with deep-green vegetation, tropical red and yellow-bellied birds and the breathtaking cliffs of Sandy Bay. When out hiking you will see how the climate and vegetation zones can change radically within just a few kilometres. The path of knowledge will take you and your experts in the footsteps of Bonaparte, who was exiled here in 1815. There was no question of escaping back then and you won't have any thoughts of escape now either, since the island has so much to offer in terms of history and natural beauty.

Arrives On: 07 Nov 26

Day 14: Walvis Bay (Namibia)

Sea, desert and culture combined: Walvis Bay deserves its nickname, the “pearl of Namibia”, and is a fascinating stop on your route along the African coast. The original settlement of the indigenous population was used as a territory by numerous colonial powers until it was handed back to Namibia in 1994. Life here today is governed mainly by the sea birds in the lagoon: countless pelicans and flamingoes flock to the calm waters and are a sight to behold. With luck, you might also see some dolphins and seals. The proximity to the Namib desert with its majestic dunes provides a unique backdrop. A true highlight for nature lovers and those with a thirst for adventure.

Arrives On: 12 Nov 26

Day 15: Lüderitz (Namibia)

Get right up close to German history on a visit to the former colony of German South West Africa in what it is now Namibia. At the edge of the Namib desert, you will discover the traces left by the German imperial era in Lüderitz, a colourful town with beautifully preserved art nouveau buildings. The German names on many of the streets and shops provide a hint of the past at first glance. The town was named after a businessman from Bremen, Adolf Lüderitz, who suspected that there were great mineral resources to be found in the region. And he was right: there were diamonds, which provided the riches for the nearby abandoned town of Kolmanskop, where magnificent stone houses were built in the German style. Find your own jewels on a stroll around Lüderitz – perhaps in the form of the Church on the Rock, built in 1911.

Arrives On: 13 Nov 26

Day 17: Cape Town (South Africa)

Arrives On: 15 Nov 26
