Often described as the fjord of wonders, Patreksfjörður is the largest town in the southern Westfjords, surrounded by some of Iceland’s most dramatic coastal scenery. Nearby, millions of seabirds nest on the towering Látrabjarg cliffs, while sweeping beaches display sands ranging from powder-white to rich golden hues.

Join the Discovery Team for engaging talks in the state-of-the-art theatre, offering insight into the region’s geography, wildlife, and the fascinating destinations still to come. Please refer to the daily program for details.

This grassy outcrop straddles the Arctic Circle, making it one of the few places on earth where you can cross the Arctic Circle on foot – truly a once-in-a lifetime experience.

Day 4: Saudarkrokur - høfn (Iceland)

The friendly town of Sauðárkrókur is located in a fertile valley along the southwestern shore of Skagafjörður Fjord. It’s the largest town in northwest Iceland, though is home to just over 2,500 people. The charming downtown will welcome you as you stroll through the small collection of distinctive, traditional buildings where the past seems to be brought back to life.

A true culinary journey awaits every day on board with up to 10 extraordinary all-inclusive culinary experiences and nine bars and lounges. As dusk falls, choose between steak and seafood at Elements, channel the spirit of Asia at Koko’s, or journey to France at Lumière+.
