Take in breathtaking views from castle ruins, marvel at luxury yachts, and sip cocktails at chic beach bars. There’s plenty of history and culture to be found in this coastal enclave, but it’s really a place to relax and soak up the champagne lifestyle that plays out alongside the sparkling Mediterranean every day.

Day 3: Portovenere (Italy)

Dubbed the “sixth” Cinque Terre town, Porto Venere is a UNESCO World Heritage-listed site that has extraordinary rocky coastlines, narrows streets winding through a medieval town, and sweeping Mediterranean views. Porto Venere is a hidden gem that is less frequented, allowing you the space to relax and experience the town for all that it is. Previously used as a Roman naval station, there is a lot of history for you to explore along this jagged coastline. Popular poets and writers such as Byron, Shelley and Lawrence are known to have fallen in love with the picturesque harbour.

Day 4: Carrara (Italy)

Marina di Carrara sits on the coast, tucked between sandy beaches and forested mountains. Many of Italy’s most famous works of art, including Michelangelo’s David, began their life in these mountains. Look closely – that’s not snow on the Apuan Alps, but world-famous Carrara marble. Today, set up beneath a striped umbrella at one of the many beach clubs. Or take a shuttle into Carrara town, where everything from fountains to cathedrals are made from their signature stone. With an overnight, make the most of the town’s western aspect and watch the sun sink over the water from your private verandah.

Day 5: Livorno (Italy)

The vibrant city of Livorno has been welcoming sailors and traders from around the globe for over 400 years. As one of Italy’s most cosmopolitan cities, Livorno serves as the gateway to the magnificent Tuscany region, renowned for its picturesque landscapes, delectable cuisine, and rich artistic heritage. Located conveniently close to Florence and Pisa, Livorno offers easy access to these iconic destinations. Explore the enchanting 17th century district of Venezia Nuova, delight your senses at the bustling Central Market or wander along the grand Terrazza Magascani overlooking the waterfront.

Day 6: Bastia (France)

France's second busiest cruise port (after Calais) and one of the busiest in the Mediterranean, Bastia is the gateway to the island of Corsica. The narrow laneways are lined with a number of impressive churches, grand public buildings and charmingly jumbled apartment buildings. Place Saint-Nicolas is at the heart of the town, a charming square lined with outdoor cafes. Watch the world go by with a coffee or glass of wine.
