Trapani was founded as a port for the hilltop fortress town of Erice. As 'the city between two seas', it holds an important strategic position on a peninsula where the Mediterranean Sea meets the Tyrrenian Sea.
Walk the narrow streets filled with refined baroque buildings with their typical wrought-iron balconies, picturesque restaurants and antique shops. Visit the unfinished Temple of Segesta, built in 424BC by the native Elymi tribe. Cagliari is the capital of the island of Sardinia, nestled between the rolling hills and the sea. It's home to one of the longest beaches in Italy, Poetta Beach, and Molentargius-Saline Regional Park, known for its bright pink flamingo colonies. Try unique culinary experiences, such as the traditional dishes malloreddus (Sardinian gnocchi) and porceddu (roast suckling pig).
