The Kai Islands are part of the Maluku Province and are made entirely of white sand and coral. Despite their jaw-dropping beauty, these islands remain far off the tourist trail, and you'll be unlikely to see another visitor.

Beneath the surface, vibrant coral reefs support an abundance of tropical fish, with manta rays often seen gliding through these nutrient-rich waters. On land, dense rainforests echo with birdlife, whilst small coastal villages offer insight into traditional ways of life. Together, Triton Bay's striking landscapes and cultural depth create a deeply rewarding and memorable experience.
