Itinerary

Day 1: Dublin (Ireland)

Start your journey in the heart of Dublin, Ireland’s vibrant capital, with a two-night Scenic Special Stay. Set on the banks of the River Liffey, Dublin was founded by the Vikings who named the city Dubh Linn, which means ‘Black Pool’ after the tidal pool that formed where the River Poddle met the Liffey. The city is magnificent with Georgian architecture, grand squares and historic monuments, and is steeped in culture and oozes charisma with a touch of hedonism.

Arrives On: 26 Apr 28

Day 2: Dublin (Ireland)

This morning your local guide will help you discover the history and charm of Dublin on a walking tour. See The Mansion House, the official residence of Dublin’s Lord Mayor, Dublin Castle, which was constructed in the 13th century on the site of a Viking settlement, and the old Post Office, the heart of Dublin’s history and culture for more than 800 years. You will also see 19th century Fitzwilliam Square, St. Stephen’s Green Park, the Molly Malone statue, the Old Parliament House and City Hall. Scenic Freechoice:

Guinness Storehouse: Visit the Guinness Storehouse and factory to learn how this famous brew is made. After your guided tour, learn how to pull the perfect pint and enjoy a tasting from the Gravity Bar on the seventh floor, which has a spectacular vantage point overlooking the city of Dublin.

Tour of Kilmainham Gaol: Journey through some of Ireland’s most fascinating history at Kilmainham Gaol Museum. Your local guide will regale you with tales from the gaol’s nearly 200-year history, including those who were held here while fighting for Irish independence. Tonight, enjoy dinner and a show in a local restaurant with traditional Irish songs, music and dancing.

Arrives On: 27 Apr 28

Day 3: Dublin (Ireland)

Today, you’ll visit the 600-year-old Blarney Castle. Explore the historic location and see the legendary ‘Stone of Eloquence’, more commonly known as the Blarney Stone. Legend says if you kiss it, you will receive the ‘gift of the gab’. Over the years, famous people such as Sir Winston Churchill, Ronald Reagan and Mick Jagger have puckered up to the ancient stone.

Afterwards, continue to Killarney, a charming town nestled in a valley surrounded by Ireland’s highest mountain range, the McGillycuddy’s Reeks.

Arrives On: 28 Apr 28

Day 3: Killarney (Ireland)

Arrives On: 28 Apr 28

Day 4: Killarney (Ireland)

Today you will experience the breathtaking scenery of the Ring of Kerry, renowned as one of the most picturesque landscapes in Ireland. Here, the Iveragh Mountains dramatically drop into the Atlantic Ocean, where rolling green hills dotted with cows and sheep are punctuated by sparkling lakes, grand houses and ancient castles. Watch as tiny fishing villages and off shore islands come in and out of view as you wind along this 100-kilometre route, which will captivate you at every bend.

Arrives On: 29 Apr 28

Day 5: Killarney (Ireland)

Today, you will drive along the spectacular Wild Atlantic Way to the Cliffs of Moher, a wind-whipped geological wonder that stretches for eight kilometres and soars to 214 metres above the crashing sea below.

Arrive in the vibrant city of Galway. The only city along the entire 2,500-kilometre Wild Atlantic Way, Galway is a remote, bohemian city that is rich in creative culture.

Arrives On: 30 Apr 28

Day 5: Galway (Ireland)

Arrives On: 30 Apr 28

Day 6: Galway (Ireland)

This morning, take a walking tour of Galway. Known as the ‘City of Tribes’ thanks to the 14 powerful merchant families who ruled it for centuries, you’ll see how the city blends its 13th century mercantile past with a lively modern vibe driven by students. Your local guide will walk you through the atmospheric lanes of the Latin Quarter, past Lynch’s Castle, Saint Nicholas’ Collegiate Church and the remnants of the old city walls.

Arrives On: 01 May 28

Day 7: Galway (Ireland)

Make your way north, stopping enroute to visit the Monastery of Clonmacnoise. Dating to the 6th century, the relics offer a rare insight into life in this period. The site includes the remnants of a cathedral and one of the largest collections of early Christian graves.

Continue to Donegal located in Ireland’s wild, northwest corner. Geographically closer to Iceland than to Cork, it is the site of Europe’s highest sea cliffs, where the Atlantic Ocean crashes dramatically onto empty beaches and mountain roads wind through breathtaking, untouched landscapes.

Arrives On: 02 May 28

Day 7: Donegal (Ireland)

Arrives On: 02 May 28

Day 8: Donegal (Ireland)

Set out on an excursion to the Giant’s Causeway, where you can walk across a surreal carpet of more than 40,000 interlocking basalt columns that step down into the Atlantic Ocean. A World Heritage Site shaped by volcanic forces millions of years ago – and by legends of the giant Finn McCool – it combines raw geology with myth, dramatic scenery, and crashing waves.

Arrives On: 03 May 28

Day 9: Donegal (Ireland)

Today, cross the Irish Sea by ferry to Scotland, where you will travel to Loch Lomond. One of Scotland’s best-known lakes (loch means lake in Scottish Gaelic), it’s the largest in Great Britain by surface area. This evening, check into your hotel for a two-night stay in Loch Lomond.

Arrives On: 04 May 28

Day 9: Loch Lomond, Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park (Scotland)

Arrives On: 04 May 28

Day 10: Loch Lomond, Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park (Scotland)

Enjoy a relaxed morning today. You may like to explore the facilities of the hotel or take a stroll along the shores of the loch.

Loch Lomond may be known for its breathtaking waterway, but Stirling Castle is one of the region’s most iconic sites. Home to multiple generations of Scottish royalty, including the childhood home of Mary Queen of Scots, the ancient chambers of this castle possesses a rich and storied history. You will see the Great Hall, the largest medieval banqueting hall ever built in Scotland, and the elaborate Royal Chapel.

After the castle tour, travel by coach to Glasgow for a short orientation tour followed by dinner at a local restaurant.

Arrives On: 05 May 28

Day 11: Loch Lomond, Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park (Scotland)

Scottish whisky is famous around the world and has been produced in the Highlands for more than 500 years. This morning, visit a local distillery to see the production process and sample some of this legendary ‘water of life’.

Later, journey to Loch Ness, a corner of the Scottish Highlands that is known for its dramatic scenery and the fabled Loch Ness monster. Keep an eye out for this elusive creature, also known as ‘Nessie’, a large prehistoric reptile believed to be living in the loch. There have been thousands of alleged sightings since the 1930s, including a number of blurry photographs, though there is no scientific evidence that Nessie exists. Nonetheless, the great folklore of the Loch Ness continues to draw in visitors far and wide.

Tonight, you’ll enjoy the first of a two-night stay in Inverness.

Arrives On: 06 May 28

Day 11: Inverness (Scotland)

Arrives On: 06 May 28

Day 12: Inverness (Scotland)

Known as the capital of the Scottish Highlands, Inverness sits where the River Ness meets the Moray Firth, an inlet of the North Sea.

Today discover the history of the highlands including a visit to the Battle of Culloden Visitors Centre, where you will learn about the 1745 Jacobite rising and hear tales of the battle that is often described as one of the most brutal in Scottish history.

Arrives On: 07 May 28

Day 13: Inverness (Scotland)

This morning you will depart the Highlands bound for Edinburgh via Scone Palace. The palace is the seat of parliaments and the crowning place of Scottish kings, and the capital of the Pict Kingdom. Their name is thought to mean ‘the painted ones’, and there is suggestion that they decorated themselves with tattoos and dyed their skin blue. Scenic Enrich Falconry Display: In the palace grounds you will be treated to a delicious morning tea accompanied by an impressive demonstration of Falconry. Known as the 'Sport of Kings' this ancient art has a history that dates back almost 4,000 years. Afterwards, continue to Edinburgh. One of the most architecturally beautiful cities in the world, Edinburgh has been Scotland’s capital since the 15th century. Check in to your hotel for a two-night stay.

Arrives On: 08 May 28

Day 13: Edinburgh (Scotland)

Arrives On: 08 May 28

Day 14: Edinburgh (Scotland)

Explore Edinburgh’s ancient, cobbled streets and well-preserved medieval and classical architecture today during a guided tour. This historic city was founded upon volcanic Castle Rock, where Edinburgh Castle – one of the oldest fortified castles in Europe – sits today. You will visit this impressive estate, as well as Royal Yacht Britannia, the former royal yacht of Queen Elizabeth II.

Enjoy the afternoon at leisure. Perhaps, wander down the city’s Royal Mile, which is buzzing with stores, cafes, bars, and often street performers. This road connects the two royal residences, stretching from Holyrood Palace to Edinburgh Castle.

Arrives On: 09 May 28

Day 15: Edinburgh (Scotland)

This morning you'll depart Edinburgh on a picturesque drive to Alnwick Castle. There, you'll discover an incredible history that dates back over 950 years to the Norman period. Learn about the family that has resided in the castle for over 700 years and hear about the movies that have used Alnwick as a filming location, including Harry Potter and Downton Abbey.

Arrive in York this afternoon. This fascinating medieval city is nestled within ancient city walls and has Roman and Viking roots. Check in for a two-night hotel stay.

Arrives On: 10 May 28

Day 15: York (England)

Arrives On: 10 May 28

Day 16: York (England)

This morning you will meet a local guide who will escort you through this delightful city, taking in all the Roman and Viking heritage that is on offer. Walk along The Shambles, the narrow medieval street lined with half-timbered houses and traditional shop fronts, and see the impressive York Minster, said to be one of the most beautiful Gothic churches in the world.

This afternoon is at leisure, with free time to explore the city on your own.

Arrives On: 11 May 28

Day 17: York (England)

Enroute to the Roman city of Bath, you will stop in the charming town of Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of William Shakespeare. Enjoy an orientation tour to see where the famous Bard was born, learn about his life and see his final resting place.

This afternoon you'll arrive in Bath and check into your hotel. The city of Bath has been a spa town since Roman times thanks to the mineral waters with restorative properties that bubble beneath its surface. It was also the home of Jane Austen and was frequented by Charles Dickens.

Arrives On: 12 May 28

Day 17: Bath (England)

Arrives On: 12 May 28

Day 18: Bath (England)

Discover beautiful Bath on a guided walking tour. The UK’s only World Heritage-listed city, the town is resplendent with honey-coloured Georgian architecture, stately Palladian townhouses and the renowned Roman Baths, constructed in 70AD.

Later, indulge in the quintessentially British tradition of afternoon tea, a delightful experience of freshly brewed tea, delicate finger sandwiches, and an array of elegant pastries and cakes.

Enjoy some free time explore the city at your own pace. Perhaps you would like to pack your swimsuit and make your way to the contemporary Thermae Bath Spa to experience the therapeutic waters that make this city world famous or climb the 212 steps to the top of Abbey Tower for a panoramic view over the ancient city and surrounding countryside.

Arrives On: 13 May 28

Day 19: Bath (England)

On your way to London, you’ll discover the mystical wonders of Stonehenge. It is estimated that this World Heritage site is around 5,000 years old and it’s considered the most architecturally sophisticated stone circle in the world. Walk around the stones, see the Neolithic villages and learn more at the exhibition.

Afterwards, you’ll make a short stop in Salisbury for an orientation tour, before continuing on to the English capital, London, for a two-night stay. The city features some of the most recognisable historic landmarks in the world, including Big Ben, the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey and Buckingham Palace.
Among London’s 2,000-year history, you’ll find bustling pubs, the West End theatre district and the glorious River Thames at its heart.

Arrives On: 14 May 28

Your local guide will show you Bratislava Castle, the Hlavné Námestie, the main square and the Old Town Hall.

Klosterneuburg Abbey guided tour and wine tasting: Visit Austria’s oldest wine estate, Klosterneuburg Abbey, which has been producing wine for 900 years. Explore the serene halls and magnificent Imperial Apartments, before a guided tasting inside the historic winery.

Arrives On: 28 May 28

Day 34: Budapest (Hungary)

This morning you will arrive in Budapest, the capital of Hungary and one of Europe’s most diverse and vibrant cities. Divided by the Danube, with Buda on one side and Pest on the other, this city became united in 1873 when a newly built bridge connected the two. It’s an architectural treasure trove comprising styles from Gothic to Art Nouveau and everything in between. It is also well known for its hot springs and thermal baths and has a vibrant nightlife scene. Scenic Freechoice:
Choose from a range of Scenic Freechoice activities on offer this morning:

Budapest in depth: Explore this magical city by coach. Starting in Buda, see the Várkert Bazár before crossing the Margaret Bridge to the Pest side to see Széchenyi Square and Elizabeth Square. End your tour with a mesmerising piano recital at the Institute for the Blind.

Budapest’s past and present: This walking and coach tour will give insight on Budapest’s communist past and life today as part of the European Union, including the 1956 Hungarian revolution and the significant Jewish events that have shaped modern culture.

Hospital in the Rock: Go underground to explore the labyrinths of the Hospital in the Rock, set underneath the city's Castle District. The complex was built as a secret hospital during WWII and was later converted to a nuclear bunker.

Guided hike of Buda: Strap on your walking shoes for a beautiful hike through the Buda district of the city. On your walk, see Várkert Bazár and beautifully landscaped gardens, all while enjoying great views over the Danube River and the city architecture.

Hungarian culinary market tour: This foodie tour in Budapest promises an unforgettable journey through the city’s culinary delights. Visit the bustling Grand Central Market and other locations for tasting the local delicacies, and hear fascinating stories about the city’s traditions. This afternoon is at leisure.

Your ship will remain docked in Budapest overnight, so you may like to head out and discover some of the city’s famed nightlife.

Arrives On: 29 May 28

Day 35: Budapest (Hungary)

Your journey concludes this morning. After one final breakfast on board, depart with a lifetime of memories. Due to new restrictions on cruise ships at Amsterdam’s city docks, your cruise is now likely to embark and/or disembark at a port outside central Amsterdam. If your ship does not have a central Amsterdam docking, Scenic will provide a central Amsterdam meeting point and transfers to your ship as required. These changes are required by local authorities and are in line with our booking terms which allow changes to berthing or dock locations and ports where operationally necessary. You will be advised of the confirmed docking location prior to departure. This itinerary is a guide only and may be amended for operational reasons such as high and low water. As such, the cruise may operate altered from that stated above. Please refer to our terms and conditions. Please note: Preview itinerary subject to change.
