Itinerary

Day 1: Zagreb (Croatia)

Fly from the UK to Zagreb. Welcome to Zagreb, the colourful and charismatic capital of Croatia. The city was founded more than 900 years ago, and its well-preserved districts range from the medieval lanes of the Upper Town to the elegant avenues of the 19th-century Lower Town. Alongside this rich cultural heritage, Zagreb is a youthful city with a buzzing café culture, sprawling parklands, quirky museums and delicious markets.

Check in to your luxurious hotel in Zagreb for a two night stay.

Arrives On: 20 Sep 25

Day 2: Zagreb (Croatia)

Leave the city this morning to be immersed in nature in the World Heritage-listed Plitvice Lakes National Park. The largest national park in Croatia, it's famous for its 16 sparkling lakes connected by underground aquifers and tumbling waterfalls. It's an easy walk along a network of paths that skirt the rocky shores or cross over the jewel-like waters. The park is a riot of wildflowers in spring, lush green through summer, and a kaleidoscope of red and gold in autumn.

After your morning time in nature, this afternoon join your local guide for a journey of discovery through Zagreb. You'll start in the Upper Town, the oldest part of the city where some buildings date back to the 13th century. See the Neo-Gothic-style Zagreb Cathedral, a national landmark that literally towers over the city with twin spires standing 108-metres tall. Admire the ancient St Mark's Church and its unique tiled roof; visit the Stone Gate, the oldest shrine in the city; and indulge in the lively sights of the bustling Dolac Market. You'll also visit the more modern Lower Town, including the grand Ban Jelacic Square.

Arrives On: 21 Sep 25

Day 3: Zagreb (Croatia)

This morning, you'll depart on a short journey across the border into Slovenia and its charming capital city, Ljubljana. One of Europe's smallest capitals, Ljubljana is often described as a 'jewel box' for its picture-perfect river, abundant parkland, red-roofed Old Town and glorious architecture.

Meet with your local guide for an engaging tour. The 900-year-old Ljubljana Castle stands on a hill overlooking the city, its exquisitely restored buildings, quiet green spaces and artistic installations give you a meaningful insight into Slovenian culture. The medieval Old Town area is off limits to cars, so is ideal for exploring on foot. During a guided tour you will see the 17th century Franciscan Church (famed for its pale pink façade), the baroque St Nicholas Cathedral, the grand Opera House, and the excellent National Museum, housed in a former Neo Renaissance palace.

Enjoy a two night stay in Ljubljana.

Arrives On: 22 Sep 25

Day 4: Ljubljana (Slovenia)

From a jewel box to a hidden gem; today you're travelling around 40 minutes north of the city to the chic resort town of Bled. It's a favourite holiday spot for Slovenians but not well known to international visitors, so you're in for a real treat. The glassy blue-green waters of the glacial Lake Bled reflect the lush green mountains and the boats bobbing at shore create a memorable setting. Board a traditional Pletna boat to visit the Church of the Mother of God, perched on a tiny island in the middle of the lake. It was first built in 1142, though the current building dates to the 17th century, and visitors can ring the bell to make a wish to the mythical lady of the lake.
