Itinerary

Day 1: Cairo (Egypt)

Welcome to Egypt. Your journey into wonder begins in Giza, just outside of Cairo, with a three-night Scenic Special Stay at the iconic Marriott Mena House Cairo Hotel. You'll be able to soak up stunning views of the Great Pyramids from the grounds of the hotel. Scenic Sunset Drinks
Join your fellow guests to enjoy drinks and canapés as the sun sets over the magnificent Pyramids. Please book your flight to arrive into Cairo prior to 02:00 PM.

Arrives On: 18 Sep 27

Day 2: Cairo (Egypt)

Visit the ancient city of Memphis. Positioned at the entrance to the Nile Delta, it was the first capital of unified Egypt around 3000 BC. Explore the vast Saqqara Necropolis, a fascinating

‘City of the Dead’ made up of tombs and Pyramids that stretches for almost eight kilometres. It is most famous for the Step Pyramid of Djoser – dating back to the 27th century BC, it was the first stone Pyramid ever built in Egypt.

Later, visit the Imhotep Museum. Six halls display the most significant artefacts discovered on the Saqqara site, including statues, coffins, paintings, utensils and architectural elements.

Arrives On: 19 Sep 27

Day 3: Cairo (Egypt)

Witness the grandeur of the Pyramids, a cluster of towering monuments that are a marvel of ancient engineering, built over 4,500 years ago. They were once grand tombs for Pharaohs Khufu, Khafre and Menkaure. They are all that remains of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World for their importance to and are now a World Heritage site. Stand before the enigmatic Sphinx, a 20-metre-high limestone statue of a mystical creature with the head of a human and the body of a lion, that has guarded these necropolis grounds for millennia.

Later, discover the priceless antiquities on display in the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization. The first of its kind in the Arab world, it covers the full breadth of Egyptian civilisation from prehistory to modern times with more than 50,000 artefacts. Its crown jewel is the Royal Mummies Hall, where 22 mummies are displayed using cutting-edge technology to go beneath the wrappings.

Arrives On: 20 Sep 27

Day 4: Cairo (Egypt)

Fly to Abu Simbel, on the southern edge of Egypt close to the Sudanese border, to visit one of the country’s most magnificent monuments. Explore the enormous World Heritage-listed temples of Ramses II and his wife Nefertari. First built in the 13th century BC, they had to be completely disassembled in the 1960s and moved 65 metres higher to protect them from the rising waters of the Aswan Dam. The entrance is guarded by four 20-metre-tall seated pharaohs carved directly into the cliff face.

Later, fly to Aswan to board the luxurious Sanctuary Sun Boat III, reserved exclusively for Scenic guests, and settle into your elegantly appointed cabin.

Arrives On: 21 Sep 27

Day 5: Port information not found

Wake today and enjoy breakfast on board before exploring the Philae Temple, an island complex that is often called the ‘Pearl of the Nile’. It dates back to the Ptolemaic era, around 350BC, but was also relocated to a different island in the 1960s during construction of the Aswan Dam. Later, enjoy a leisurely cruise on a felucca, a traditional wooden boat with a single sail. Slow down and soak in the beauty of the riverside scenery as you glide gently along the calm waters.

Then, explore Kom Ombo Temple, perched high on the Nile’s East Bank and dedicated to Sobek, the Crocodile God. It is famous for its unique symmetrical design, with two identical chambers mirroring each other along a central line.

Return to Sanctuary Sun Boat III for dinner at Copper Tray restaurant, showcasing locally-inspired cuisine. After dinner perhaps relax in the H. Carter Lounge for an evening aperitif^.

Arrives On: 22 Sep 27

Day 6: Port information not found

Visit the 2,100-year-old Temple of Edfu on the West Bank of the Nile. Built from golden sandstone, this grand shrine was a place of worship for the Ptolemaic Pharaohs and dedicated to Horus, the falcon-headed god.

A memorable night awaits on board with a colourful Galabeya party with Egyptian delicacies, music and dancing.

Arrives On: 23 Sep 27

Day 7: Port information not found

Wake to delicious breakfast today with your choice of buffet breakfast or a la carte local specialities. Before your day of discoveries, perhaps enjoy the plunge pool or recline on the Sun Deck on a luxurious cabana as you follow the path of age-old explorers.

Then, cross to the West Bank and be astounded by the well-preserved, colourful hieroglyphics adorning the tombs in the Valley of the Kings. Scenic Enrich
The tomb of Seti I is one of the longest, deepest and most beautifully adorned tombs in the Valley of the Kings.

Visit the mudbrick home of British archaeologist and Egyptologist Howard Carter, which has been restored to look as it would have when he lived here in the 1920s. Adjacent is a replica of Tutankhamun’s tomb, providing a tantalising glimpse into the boy king’s opulence and mystique. Then see the impressive monument to Queen Hatshepsut. Return to the luxury of Sanctuary Sun Boat III for a buffet lunch which changes between international, barbeque or Egyptian cuisines daily.

Later, discover the vast open-air temple complex of Karnak and be awed by the enormity of the pillars as you walk through the impressive Hypostyle Hall.

Conclude your day with a farewell gala dinner followed by a Dervish Show.

Day 9: Luxor (Egypt)

Travel north to Qena and visit the Dendera Temples, considered to be amongst the best-preserved sites in Egypt. The focal point of the complex is the 2,000-year-old Temple of Hathor, which honours the goddess Hathor who is associated with music, joy, dance and motherhood. Admire its opulent architecture, exquisite reliefs and the captivating Dendera Zodiac hanging from the outer hypostyle hall ceiling. The Temple of the Birth of Isis is dedicated to the goddess Isis and has reliefs showing scenes from her fabled birth and early years.

A leisurely afternoon awaits as you savour your last moments on board. Then visit Luxor Temple, dedicated to the god Amun, which served as a site for royal coronations and rebirth rituals around 3,500 years ago. The site has been used for worship continuously for more than 3,000 years, with a Christian church and the 13th-century Abu Haggag Mosque still inside. Admire The Avenue of Sphinxes, a grand 3-kilometre processional way lined with sphinxes that links Luxor Temple to Karnak Temple.
