Day 17: Sado (Japan)

Venture to Sado Island, a rugged and richly storied island set in the Sea of Japan off the coast of Niigata. Once a place of exile for disgraced aristocrats and a centre of gold mining that fuelled the Tokugawa shogunate, Sado carries layers of history that few Japanese destinations can match. The island's gold and silver mines, which operated for nearly four centuries, have been recognised for their historical significance and remain among Sado's most compelling landmarks.

Beyond its mining heritage, Sado is celebrated for its traditional performing arts, including the thunderous Ondeko drumming and the refined movements of Noh theatre, which flourished here during the island's years as a cultural crossroads. Dramatic coastal scenery unfolds along rocky headlands, hidden coves and rice terraces that cascade to the sea, whilst the island's slower pace of life offers a welcome contrast to the busier mainland.

Arrives On: 27 Mar 29

Day 18: Niigata (Japan)

Discover Niigata, a prosperous port city on Honshu's Sea of Japan coast, renowned for producing some of the country's finest rice and, by extension, its most celebrated saké. The city's historic port quarter reflects centuries of maritime trade, with handsome merchant residences and warehouses that speak to Niigata's importance as a gateway between Japan and the Asian mainland. Fertile plains stretch inland, their patchwork of rice paddies providing the foundation of the region's agricultural identity, whilst the nearby coastline offers quiet stretches of sand and views across the sea toward Sado Island.

This evening, perhaps enjoy contemporary French fine dining at Lumière+, where each dish is paired with an exquisite selection of Champagne.

Arrives On: 28 Mar 29

Day 20: Aomori (Japan)

Arrive in Aomori, the northernmost city on Honshu, where the landscapes take on a wilder, more dramatic character. While the festival takes place in August, the city's waterfront Nebuta Museum brings the festival to life year-round, with full-scale floats on display in a striking contemporary building.

Beyond the city, the Shirakami Mountains, a World Heritage-listed site, preserve one of the last remaining virgin beech forests in East Asia. Closer at hand, Hirosaki Castle presides over extensive grounds that are among the most celebrated cherry blossom viewing spots in all of Japan, with thousands of sakura trees creating a breathtaking canopy of pink and white during the spring season. The surrounding moat, carpeted with fallen petals, is one of the country's most iconic seasonal images.

Arrives On: 30 Mar 29

Day 21: Hakodate (Japan)

Cross the Tsugaru Strait to Hakodate, a port city at the southern tip of Hokkaido with a distinctive cosmopolitan heritage. Among the first Japanese cities to open to international trade in the mid-19th century, Hakodate retains a fascinating blend of Western and Japanese architectural influences, particularly in the Motomachi district, where European-style churches, former consulates and elegant merchant houses line hillside streets overlooking the harbour.

The star-shaped Fort Goryokaku, Japan's first Western-style citadel, is beautifully set amidst parkland that transforms into a sea of cherry blossoms each spring. The sweeping panorama from Mount Hakodate is considered one of Japan's three finest vistas, with the city's twinkling lights tracing the narrow isthmus between two bays as evening falls. The bustling morning market near the waterfront is a feast for the senses, with vendors offering the freshest Hokkaido seafood, from glistening uni to succulent crab.

Arrives On: 31 Mar 29

Day 22: Miyako, Iwate (Japan)

Turning south along the Pacific coast, arrive at Miyako, gateway to the dramatic Sanriku coastline. This stretch of northeastern Japan is defined by its raw, untamed beauty, where rugged cliffs plunge into the ocean and forested headlands frame sheltered bays of remarkable clarity. Jodogahama Beach, with its striking white rock formations and emerald waters, has been admired for centuries and remains one of the Tohoku region's most captivating coastal landscapes.

The surrounding coastline reveals a succession of sea caves, natural arches and wave-sculpted promontories, shaped over millennia by the powerful Pacific currents. Miyako's resilient fishing communities maintain a deep connection to the sea, and the area's maritime traditions continue to define daily life along these shores.

Arrives On: 01 Apr 29

Day 23: Oarai (Japan)

Discover Oarai, a seaside town on the Ibaraki coast where spiritual tradition meets natural splendour. The Oarai Isosaki Shrine, perched dramatically on rocky outcrops above the Pacific, features a torii gate that rises directly from the sea, creating a striking tableau at sunrise as waves crash around its base. This sacred site has drawn visitors for centuries, its ocean setting imbuing it with a sense of elemental power.

Inland, the Ibaraki countryside reveals a gentler landscape of wooded valleys and flowing rivers. Fukuroda Falls, one of Japan's three great waterfalls, cascades over a series of rocky tiers surrounded by dense forest that blazes with colour in autumn and frames the tumbling water in fresh green during spring. The region's quieter character offers a contemplative pause between the dramatic coastlines further north and the iconic vistas that lie ahead.

Arrives On: 02 Apr 29

Day 24: Shimizu (Japan)

Shimizu offers one of the most celebrated vistas in all of Japan: the commanding presence of Mount Fuji, its symmetrical snow-capped cone rising above Suruga Bay in a scene that has inspired artists and poets for centuries. On clear days, the sacred mountain dominates the horizon with a majesty that transcends every photograph.

Ashore, the Nihondaira plateau provides an elevated vantage point encompassing Mount Fuji, the bay and the surrounding tea plantations that carpet the hillsides in vivid green. Nearby, the ornate Kunozan Toshogu Shrine, a forerunner to the more famous Nikko shrine, honours Tokugawa Ieyasu and stands resplendent with lacquered woodwork and gilded detailing amid forested slopes. Further afield, the World Heritage-listed Shiraito Falls presents a curtain of delicate cascades fed by snowmelt filtering through ancient lava, creating an ethereal scene of mist and light.

Return to Scenic Eclipse II and unwind with a cocktail at the Sky Bar on Deck 10 with panoramic sea vistas, or step into the thermal loungers of Senses Spa to recharge after your day ashore.

Arrives On: 03 Apr 29

Day 25: Toba (Japan)

Arrive in Toba, a quiet port city on the Shima Peninsula that holds an outsized place in Japanese cultural history. It was here, in the sheltered waters of Ago Bay, that Mikimoto Kokichi pioneered the technique of cultivating pearls in the late 19th century, transforming a local fishing tradition into a global industry. The legacy of pearl cultivation remains woven into the fabric of the city, and the traditions of the ama, the free-diving women who have harvested shellfish and seaweed along these shores for over two thousand years, endure as a living connection to the region's maritime past.

Nearby, the Ise Grand Shrine, Japan's most sacred Shinto site, stands in a forest of towering ancient cryptomeria trees. Rebuilt every 20 years in an unbroken cycle of renewal stretching back centuries, the shrine complex embodies the essence of Japanese spiritual tradition. The forested slopes of Mount Asama and the surrounding pilgrimage trails offer a contemplative counterpoint to the coastal pleasures of Toba.

This evening, perhaps enjoy one final dinner at Lumière+, where contemporary French fine dining is paired with an exquisite selection of Champagne, or celebrate your journey with the tantalising street-food inspired dishes at Night Market @ Koko's+.
