Itinerary

Day 1: Kokomo (Fiji)

Travel by seaplane from Nadi International Airport and touch down at Kokomo Island. Here, staff will escort you to your villa where a cool drink and the gentle hush of the ocean set the tone for your stay. Take a moment to explore your space, slipping straight into the pool, resting on your sun loungers or simply absorbing the tropical views from your terrace. A leisurely late lunch awaits, either in villa or at the Beach Shack, with fresh, seasonal dishes that introduce you to the resort’s Mediterranean meets Fijian philosophy. Spend the remainder of the afternoon at leisure.

Later, wander down to the island’s sunken cocktail bar. From here, drift to the Sunset Bar, where the ocean horizon becomes your evening backdrop and a handcrafted cocktail or mocktail is the perfect companion to the changing colours. Dinner at Beach Shack is a relaxed, share style affair, showcasing the skills of the resort’s international chefs: handmade pastas, risottos rich with local flavour, aged cuts of meat, grilled prawns, mud crabs and whole baked fish, all inspired by sustainably sourced Fijian produce. After dinner, return to your villa for a quiet swim under the stars or a final nightcap on the terrace, lulled to sleep by the sound of the waves.

Arrives On: 08 Feb 29

Day 2: Kokomo (Fiji)

Enjoy a gourmet breakfast wherever you feel most at ease – barefoot at the Beach Shack or in the privacy of your villa – with tropical fruit, fresh pastries and cooked to order favourites prepared just for you. This morning, venture out onto the water to discover one of the world's finest marine environments. Kokomo sits on the Great Astrolabe Reef, and a guided snorkelling or introductory diving experience reveals a kaleidoscope of coral, reef fish and, in season, the chance to encounter larger pelagic life like sharks and tuna in crystal clear water.

On your return, a casual lunch gives way to an afternoon of relaxation. As the day cools, you might join a private yoga or meditation session, aligning breath and movement while gazing out over the island's tropical canopy.

Evening brings another opportunity to savour the island's culinary creativity. Tonight you may like to focus on the ocean's bounty: grilled local prawns, delicate fish, vibrant salads and vegetables, paired with fine wines or crafted cocktails, all enjoyed to the soundtrack of the waves. Return once more to your villa, where your personal bar is restocked with a selection of non-alcoholic beverages, your clothes are laundered and pressed, and everything is prepared for another effortless day in paradise.

Arrives On: 09 Feb 29

Day 3: Kokomo (Fiji)

Your final full day on Kokomo is yours to shape entirely 'your way'. Greet the sunrise with a gentle kayak or standup paddle around the island, watching the light catch the reef and the jungle interior, before returning to a leisurely breakfast. For those drawn to adventure, the morning may bring a deeper exploration of the reef through diving, or a half day of deep-sea fishing with the resort's experienced team, chasing game fish in the blue waters beyond the lagoon.

Back on Kokomo, lunch is unhurried and generous, perhaps taken poolside or in the shade of a palm fringed dining pavilion. The afternoon invites you to slow down completely. Laze beside the resort's pool or retreat to the privacy of your own, dipping in and out of the water as you sip something chilled from your personal bar.

As your last evening unfolds, the resort team can arrange a special private dining experience, like a candlelit table set on the beach, or an elegant in villa dinner that transforms your terrace into an intimate restaurant for two or more. Feast on a tailored menu that highlights the best of local seafood and Fijian flavours, accompanied by the glow of lanterns and the sound of the tide. A celebration of time well spent in exceptional surroundings.

Arrives On: 10 Feb 29

Day 4: Kokomo (Fiji)

Enjoy a final morning on Kokomo Island, perhaps with a swim in the lagoon or a quiet breakfast overlooking the water, as the rhythm of island life lingers a little longer.

Later, transfer to Lautoka, where your Discovery Voyage begins. Step aboard your Scenic Discovery Yacht and be welcomed by the Captain and crew. Settle into your suite, raise a glass of Champagne, and ease into life on board before joining fellow guests at the Sky Bar to mark the beginning of your journey through the South Pacific.

Arrives On: 11 Feb 29

Day 4: Nadi (Fiji)

Arrives On: 11 Feb 29

Day 4: Lautoka (Fiji)

Arrives On: 11 Feb 29

Day 7: Champagne Bay, Espiritu Santo Island (Vanuatu)

Espiritu Santo, the largest island in Vanuatu’s archipelago, enchants with Champagne Bay, one of the world’s most exquisite beaches where a freshwater spring flows into the lagoon creating a spa-like bubbling sensation at low tide. Inhabited by the Ni-Vanuatu, who preserve Melanesian traditions, you’re welcomed ashore with a lively string band and the mesmerising water music women’s performance. Taste seasonal fruits, nuts, and kava, a revered local drink, before a scenic bus ride to swim in a stunning blue hole, immersing you in the island’s vibrant culture and natural wonders. Scenic Discovery:
Today you may enjoy an assortment of Discovery activities, weather and local authority approvals permitting. Navigate calm waters by kayak or stand-up paddleboard and snorkel amidst colourful reefs.

Arrives On: 14 Feb 29

Day 8: Lata, Nendo Island (Solomon Islands)

Lata, a serene and picturesque town on Nendö Island, also known as Ndende Island, in the Solomon Islands, enchants with its natural beauty and tranquil charm. The warm and welcoming locals invite you to experience their rich traditions and way of life. With pristine beaches and crystal-clear waters, Lata offers exceptional snorkelling, where vibrant coral reefs and abundant marine life create unforgettable underwater experiences.

Arrives On: 15 Feb 29

Day 9: Santa Ana Island (Solomon Islands)

Step ashore on Santa Ana Island, also known as Owaraha, a remote coral gem in the southeastern Solomons. Rich in history and culture, the island offers a rare glimpse into traditional island life. Wander through vibrant villages, meet welcoming locals, and discover handcrafted treasures that reflect centuries of heritage. Relax on pristine beaches with crystal-clear waters, where snorkelling unveils vibrant coral reefs teeming with marine life. Scenic Discovery:
Delight in an array of Discovery activities, weather and local authority approvals permitting. Paddle across serene waters by kayak or stand-up paddleboard, snorkel over stunning reefs, or opt for an exclusive optional helicopter^ or submersible^ experience to uncover breathtaking vistas.

Arrives On: 16 Feb 29

Day 10: Honiara, Guadalcanal Island (Solomon Islands)

The Solomon Islands' largest island, cloaked in tropical rainforest, boasts palm-fringed coasts and pristine white-sand beaches. Surrounded by clear waters teeming with wildlife, delve into history at World War II relics and monuments, including the Battle of Guadalcanal sites. Honiara unveils its wartime significance, with the Vilu War Museum, Cultural Centre, National Museum, and National Archives, blending natural beauty with rich heritage. Walk along the waterfront markets, where local vendors offer fresh produce, handwoven baskets and carved wooden artefacts, providing a vibrant glimpse into everyday Solomon Island life.

Arrives On: 17 Feb 29

Day 11: Njari Island (Solomon Islands)

The Solomon Islands offer exceptional opportunities to explore a vibrant underwater world. Pristine reefs reveal an extraordinary diversity of marine life, from colourful reef fish to graceful rays, playful dolphins, and sea turtles gliding through crystal-clear waters. With expansive coral gardens and thriving ecosystems, the region is a haven for snorkelling, diving, and underwater photography.

Njari Island, a remote and uninhabited island just offshore from Gizo, epitomises tropical serenity. Fringed by white sand and turquoise waters, its secluded shores invite relaxed swimming and immersive snorkelling in an idyllic island setting. Gizo itself serves as the gateway to the Western Province, where wartime wrecks lie beneath the surface and the legacy of PT-109 adds historical depth to the area's natural allure. Scenic Discovery:
Embark on a water experience with your Discovery team, weather and local authority approvals permitting. Swimming in pristine lagoons, snorkelling amidst colourful marine ecosystems, and skimming the surface on a stand-up paddleboard, all in the heart of breathtaking surroundings.

Arrives On: 18 Feb 29

Day 11: Gizo (Solomon Islands)

Arrives On: 18 Feb 29

Day 12: Bougainville Island (Papua New Guinea)

Torokina sits on the shores of Empress Augusta Bay on Bougainville’s west coast, where dark sand beaches meet dense rainforest and low, forested hills. Once a strategically important landing site during the Second World War, today it is defined more by village life, simple churches and gardens close to the shoreline. Coming ashore offers a sense of everyday Bougainville, with the sound of the surf, children playing by the water and paths that lead inland beneath the canopy. The area’s wartime past and ongoing links to the sea lend Torokina a quiet, reflective character that contrasts with its raw, green surroundings.

Arrives On: 19 Feb 29

Day 13: Rabaul, Bismarck Archipelago (Papua New Guinea)

Located at the eastern tip of New Britain, the tropical port town of Rabaul is renowned for its dramatic natural setting. Set along the sheltered waters of Simpson Harbour, the town is encircled by a ring of volcanoes, including the still-active Mount Tavurvur, creating a striking landscape shaped by powerful natural forces. Volcanic ash blankets parts of the old town, where remnants of pre-eruption buildings stand as testament to nature's force.

The area's network of wartime tunnels, built by Japanese forces during World War II, offers a sobering glimpse into the region's strategic importance during the conflict. Later, depart Rabaul and sail across tranquil waters toward the Duke of York Islands, a picturesque archipelago set between New Britain and New Ireland. Dotted with palm-fringed shores and surrounded by clear, turquoise seas, these quiet islands offer a peaceful contrast to Rabaul’s dramatic volcanic landscape, inviting relaxed exploration in an idyllic tropical setting.

Arrives On: 20 Feb 29

Day 13: Duke of York Island (Papua New Guinea)

Arrives On: 20 Feb 29

Day 15: Lorengau, Manus Island (Papua New Guinea)

Discover Manus Island, the northern jewel of the Admiralty Islands, where lush forests and vibrant wildlife thrive. Steeped in history yet remarkably untouched, the island offers a glimpse into life in one of Papua New Guinea’s most remote regions. Keep an eye out for unique creatures such as the spotted cuscus (an endemic marsupial), or admire the island’s iconic green tree snail, whose shells reflect centuries of local tradition. The island's sheltered harbour once served as a significant Allied naval base during World War II, and traces of that era remain visible along the coastline. Local villages maintain traditional ways of life, with fishing, weaving and canoe-building still central to daily routines. Manus is a serene, fascinating stop for curious travellers seeking natural beauty and cultural richness.

Arrives On: 22 Feb 29

Day 18: Koror (Palau)

Situated in the heart of the Pacific, Koror invites you to discover a captivating fusion of vibrant culture and breathtaking natural wonders. As the gateway to Palau’s famed marine sanctuaries, Koror offers crystal-clear waters, pristine coral reefs, and an extraordinary diversity of tropical marine life, perfect for snorkelling, or exploration ashore.

The Rock Islands, a World Heritage-listed site, rise dramatically from turquoise lagoons, their mushroom-shaped limestone formations creating one of the Pacific's most iconic seascapes. Jellyfish Lake offers a surreal swimming experience amongst harmless golden jellyfish, whilst traditional bai (meeting houses) showcase intricate carved storyboards depicting Palauan legends. Rich in history and warm island hospitality, Koror is a jewel of Micronesia.

Arrives On: 25 Feb 29

Day 19: Koror (Palau)

An additional day in Koror invites a deeper look into the landscapes and traditions that define Palau. Explore further into the World Heritage-listed Rock Islands Southern Lagoon, where hidden inlets and emerald islets create a maze of sheltered waterways.

You may choose to wander local markets, or learn more about Palau’s matrilineal society and ancient customs through its traditional meeting houses. With more time on your side, Koror reveals layers of history and culture that reward a more considered exploration.

Arrives On: 26 Feb 29

Day 21: Casolian (Philippines)

Casulian Island, in the central Philippines, also known as Corregidor Island, feels far removed from the country’s busier resort centres. A sweep of pale sand, clear shallows and gently wooded slopes sets an unhurried tone from the moment you arrive. Time here is likely to centre on simple pleasures: walking the shoreline, swimming from the beach or sitting beneath the shade of coastal trees. Offshore, patches of coral and seagrass hint at the rich marine life that underpins local fishing traditions, offering a quiet glimpse of everyday island life in the Visayas. Small fishing boats rest along the shore, and the rhythm of village life unfolds at a gentle pace, with children sometimes playing near the water's edge and locals tending to nets and outrigger canoes.

Arrives On: 28 Feb 29

Day 22: Cebu (Philippines)

Cebu, one of the Philippines’ most historic cities, blends Spanish colonial landmarks, lively neighbourhoods and a growing contemporary arts and dining scene. Walk in the footsteps of early Spanish settlers at centuries-old churches and plazas before exploring markets and smaller boutiques for local crafts and design. Magellan's Cross, planted in 1521, marks the arrival of Christianity in the Philippines, whilst the Basilica del Santo Niño houses one of the country's oldest religious relics. Fort San Pedro, a Spanish-era fortification, offers a glimpse into Cebu's colonial past, whilst vibrant Carbon Market pulses with local life, fragrant spices and fresh produce. Time here may also reveal Cebu’s coastal side, with nearby islands, marine reserves and beach-fringed shores adding another dimension to your visit.

Arrives On: 01 Mar 29

Day 23: Boracay Island (Philippines)

Boracay is one of the Philippines’ most recognisable island destinations, known for its long stretch of pale sand and clear, gently shelving water. Away from the busier beach sections, smaller coves and quieter walking routes reveal a softer side to the island. White Beach stretches for several kilometres along the western shore, backed by coconut palms and low-rise resorts, whilst Puka Shell Beach to the north offers a more secluded setting. Offshore, coral gardens and gentle currents create ideal conditions for snorkelling, and traditional paraw sailboats still glide across the bay at sunset. You might spend time along the waterfront, pause at a café or bar to sample local dishes and fresh seafood, or simply sit and watch the rhythm of boats and walkers along the shore.

Arrives On: 02 Mar 29

Day 24: El Nido/Puerto Princesa (Philippines)

El Nido, at the northern tip of Palawan, is framed by limestone cliffs, sheltered lagoons and clear, shallow bays. The surrounding Bacuit Archipelago scatters small islands and pocket beaches across a compact stretch of sea, giving the area an intimate, almost enclosed feel. Hidden lagoons accessible only by kayak reveal calm waters surrounded by towering karst formations, whilst secluded beaches offer quiet stretches of sand away from the main town. Snorkelling sites around Miniloc and Shimizu islands showcase healthy coral gardens and diverse marine life, from parrotfish to occasional sea turtles. Time here tends to unfold at an easy pace, with opportunities to appreciate the interplay of rock, sand and sea and the distinctive coastal scenery that has made this corner of the Philippines so admired.

Arrives On: 03 Mar 29

Day 27: Hong Kong (Hong Kong)

Hong Kong, where steep green hills frame one of the world’s most recognisable harbours, provides a fitting finale to your journey. Traditional temples, lively markets and historic tramways sit alongside towering skyscrapers contemporary galleries and an evolving dining scene.

Your Discovery Voyage comes to a close this morning. After a final sumptuous breakfast, farewell your fellow guests and the Scenic Eclipse II crew, taking with you memories of an unforgettable ultra-luxury journey through the Pacific.
