Here, residents cycle along wide streets, relax in leafy parks and dine under the stars in open-air restaurants. It's known as a global financial centre, but there's also one of Europe's most eclectic cultural scenes, world-class contemporary art and a fascinating history. Check in to your historic hotel in Zurich for an overnight stay.

Day 2: Zurich (Switzerland)

Set off on foot this morning for a walking tour with a local guide. Zurich is one of the world's great walking cities, with a flat centre, many pedestrian-only streets and historic bridges. Wander along the Bahnhofstrasse, the city's main street that's lined with glamorous boutiques and international flagship stores. Straddling both sides of the Limmat River, Zurich's Old Town is a pleasant jumble of tiny laneways, cobbled squares and medieval buildings. Don't miss St Peter's Church, where the original 9th century foundations are still visible beneath the chancel and the iconic twin towers of the Grossmünster church. Then, travel through the impossibly pretty town of Lucerne. Perched on the edge of the spectacular Lake Lucerne, you'll find exquisite medieval architecture, a 685-year-old wooden footbridge (the oldest in Europe), and glimpses of the majestic Alps in the distance. Arrive in the city of Kehl, the gateway to Strasbourg, this afternoon. It's the capital city of the Alsace region, where sherbert-coloured, half-timbered houses heave together on the banks of a complex network of canals. On its central island, the UNESCO-listed Grand Ile, is the Petite France district, so named for the 15th century hospital that was built here for patients suffering from syphilis, 'the French disease'. It is also known as the Tanners' Quarters, thanks to its medieval industries. Its meandering cobbled laneways are lined with a medley of buildings with shuttered windows and bright flowerboxes.
