Day 2: Bordeaux (France)

Welcome to the most famous wine region in the world. Bordeaux has nearly 6,000 wineries and 272,000 acres of vineyards, with the most planted grape being the Merlot. Known as the "City of art, history and cuisine" this southwestern city of France boasts 362 monuments, including some from the Roman era, well-preserved 18th-century architecture, including grand boulevards, elegant squares and numerous Michelin-starred restaurants. Your first morning begins with a choice of excursion; you may choose a more active e-bicycle ride to a family-owned 16th-century chateau and vineyard for a hike along the nature trails and compliments with wine tasting at the end. Alternatively, discover the beautiful city of Bordeaux with local insights on an orientation drive, en route to Cité du Vin; Bordeaux's wine museum where you'll learn about the influence of wine as a universal cultural heritage. Touring of a wine museum would only be complete with a tasting - which you'll enjoy in their decorated tasting room. Following your choice of explorations this morning, and free time for lunch, join us for a foodie walking tour with a focus on the local gastronomic cuisine. Return to your hotel for an evening at leisure.

Arrives On: 27 Apr 27

Day 3: Saint-Émilion (France)

After breakfast at your hotel, depart for the quaint medieval town of Saint-Émilion, a UNESCO World Heritage Site named after Saint Aemilianus, a Breton monk who lived in the 8th century. Much like Bordeaux, Saint-Émilion is known for its world-famous wineries, where Romans planted vineyards that date back to 2nd century AD. Join our local guide for a more challenging walking tour through its hilly cobblestone streets, followed by a visit to a local Chateau for a tour, wine tasting and a lunch that entices with local flair.

Arrives On: 28 Apr 27

Day 4: Paris (France)

From the world-renowned wine region to "la ville lumière," (the city of lights) make your way to Paris, where your river cruise awaits. Paris earned its sobriquet during the enlightenment, a philosophical movement that began in the early 17th century, in recognition of its importance as the center for art, education and intellectual pursuits. After a scenic high-speed train ride, embark your ship, settle in and join us for a welcome reception and dinner aboard your floating hotel.

Arrives On: 29 Apr 27

Day 5: Paris (France)

A full day in Paris begins with promise and possibility – and your choice of curated experiences to explore the city's many facets. After breakfast aboard your riverboat, join a local guide for a walking tour through the storied Latin Quarter. Stroll past Sorbonne University – one of Europe's most prestigious institutions, founded in the Middle Ages – and continue to the neoclassical Panthéon, a national mausoleum honoring the great men and women of France. Your walk concludes in the elegant Luxembourg Gardens, often named the most beautiful garden in Europe. Prefer to take in the city with less walking? Opt for a panoramic coach tour offering a broad overview of Paris's most iconic landmarks – from the Eiffel Tower to the Arc de Triomphe and the grand sweep of the Champs-Élysées – all from the comfort of your seat. Or, for a more offbeat indulgence, choose a guided walking tour with a visit to a cheese museum, where you'll learn about the history and craft behind France's famed fromage – with tastings, of course. Return to the ship for a leisurely lunch, with time to unwind before an engaging onboard wine presentation sets the tone for cocktail hour, dinner in the lounge, and an evening of local entertainment.

Arrives On: 30 Apr 27

Choose a more active option to descend to the village for a closer look at life along the river. Mid-morning, venture to Tilly for an authentic taste of Normandy. At a welcoming family-run farm, savor a cider and Calvados tasting experience. Tour the farm and delight in regional specialties, from velvety brandy to homemade pâté and fruit preserves. The flavors of this pastoral region are sure to linger on your palate long after the visit. Enjoy a scenic drive back to Les Andelys, where you'll reconnect with the ship as it sets course for Vernon. Upon arrival, join your Tour Director for an insightful orientation walk, uncovering the town's rich history and charm. Whether it's the half-timbered houses or the quaint cobblestone squares, Vernon invites you to step back in time.
