Day 3: Kampen (Netherlands)

An emblem of the former Hanseatic League—a confederation of merchant towns that dominated Northern European trade and formed a significant line of defense against pirates—Kampen wears its history proudly. Begin your day in Utrecht, a beautiful, uncrowded city that provides an excellent example of classic Dutch city architecture and culture.In the afternoon, enjoy a scenic sailing to Rotterdam, sometimes called “Manhattan on the Meuse” for its dazzling modern skyline. One of the fantastic star-forts of the Netherlands, Willemstad is a fortress town neatly structured in the shape of a seven-pointed star.
